Texas School Head Admits Gas Line Tapped

BLAST CLUE GIVEN BOARD BY STUDENT

NEW LONDON, Tex., March 22. (UP)—William C. Shaw, 61, superintendent of the New London school, admitted before a military board of inquiry today that the gas which apparently exploded, killing 426 persons last Thursday, was taken without permission from the pipe lines of a private company.

First Direct Clue This testimony, given by the oldest educator in Texas in a firm voice, came after a 16-year-old survivor of the explosion stood before the court and showed that his hair had been singed in the blast. From him came the first direct clue to the source of the spark that apparently detonated pockets of gas that had formed from faulty connections or equipment.

The youth, John Duce, testified the explosion, accompanied by a flash of flame, came from the sub-basement when a manual training instructor threw an electric switch at a sanding machine.

Admits Line Tapped Shaw, his hand bandaged and wearing new spectacles to replace those broken in the explosion, went before the board this third day of the inquiry and admitted that the Parade Gas company's natural gas pipeline that passed under the campus of the school was tapped without the company's permission.

He also admitted that officials of the United Gas company, from which the school board previously bought its gas, had warned him that "the board might be using a dangerous gas."

He said that a United Gas company official told him that "you might get into trouble."

Janitors Tapped Line Floyd Hunt, a janitor at the school, testified that a crew of the

NAZIS AROUSED OVER PROTEST

BERLIN, March 22.—(UP)—Nazis, angry over a stern papal protest against alleged violations of the treaty between the Vatican and the German government, warned today that it might be necessary to alter the treaty to prevent its becoming "unbearable."

It was indicated that the long-pending protest might well lead to a crisis in the diplomatic relations between the Nazi Reich and the Vatican.

Bishop Gives Warning Not only was the warning itself one that showed the pope's intense interest in the German religious situation but it was backed by a warning read in all Roman Catholic churches—Lichtenberg-Moos, Roman Catholic bishop of Berlin.

"The church will fight for its rights,"

The government already has been drawn into the controversy in the German Evangelical church over the so far unavailing effort to Nazify religion.

No Need For Man to Bite Dog Here!

There are real live fish in the Santa Ana river! That's the news for two reasons:

In the first place there's seldom enough water in the river for a hump-backed fish to keep his head and tail under. In the second place there's never been any fish in the Santa Ana river.

But today its spring vacation and boys are fishing off the bridge on West First street—and they're catching fish.

TELLS ROMANCE WITH IL DUCE

PARIS, March 22.—(UP)—Mme. Madeleine De Fontanges, held for the shooting of Count Charles De Chambrun, told an examining magistrate today that a purported shattered love affair with Premier Benito Mussolini caused her to attempt suicide in Rome last November. She blamed the count for her troubles.

For two hours, the former journalist and actress told the magistrate of her alleged romance with the Italian dictator last summer in Rome. She said she met Il Duce in the capital last April and saw him regularly until July 6. After that, Madame Fontanges said she suddenly was unable to see him.

She told the court she had confided in Count De Chambrun, then French ambassador to Italy. He said Mussolini probably was worried over his child's illness.

Then she said Dino Alfieri, ranking Fascist official close to Mussolini, said she, who presented her with a round-trip airplane ticket to Paris, suggesting she leave Rome "for a while."

Madame Fontanges said she went back to France—but was unable to remain away from Rome and flew back a week later but still she could not see Mussolini, and inquired from Alfieri if anyone was "keeping me with Mussolini."

She said he hinted it might be someone at the French embassy, where Count De Chambrun was ambassador. Her testimony at the Palais De Justice then related how Mme. Fontanges, after going to Paris to forget, returned once more to Rome on a desperate mission—to see Il Duce or die.

LIMA BEAN LAND HERE IN DEMAND

Slump in the sale of citrus land is being offset by increased sales in bean land, according to officials of the First National bank. The latest sale reported was that by the Santa Ana Mortgage and Investment company to Joseph D. Sutter of 34 acres of bean land one-fourth mile south of Bolsa for a sum exceeding $12,000.

Officials of the bank today declared that the heavy rainfall of the winter has made irrigation unnecessary this year.

The frost this winter hit the citrus industry to such an extent that sales of citrus land have been few and far between, real estate men point out. As a result, the growers are turning to bean land and because of the fact that the cost of irrigation has been done away with, for this year at least, sales are being made almost daily in the territory south and east of Huntington Beach.

Police End Long Search for Man

"Crisis" Of Vacation Is Faced Here

Frost and flood have come and gone, and today a new "crisis" was faced—Easter vacation.

Santa Ana teachers turned over to Santa Ana parents the job of herding 6000 students for one week.

Next Monday, those parents who are still "on their feet" will send the youngsters back to the teachers. The parents will then take their vacation. At least, they'll need one.

Starting with a rain storm today, it appeared that the Easter vacation would be strictly an indoor affair, which didn't help the outlook for the mothers. However, there was a ray of hope. While more rain was forecast for tonight, the weather man cautiously indicated that it might be clearing tomorrow.

Nevertheless, it was generally admitted that a timely drought might save the interiors of local homes. Many families were reported planning outings to Death valley in the emergency.

Elsewhere in the county the situation was equally grave, except in one or two districts. La Habra, for instance, will not dismiss until Wednesday, having to make up some time lost in the recent flu epidemic.

STRIKERS MAY START RECALL

BULLETIN WASHINGTON, March 22.—(UP)—Rep. Clare E. Hoffman, R., Mich., said in the House today that President Roosevelt could end sit-down strikes immediately if he intervened in the Michigan labor situation.

"If the President would tell his hired man in Michigan, Governor Murphy, and this lady down here trying to run the labor department, to have the sit-downers get out, we would not have any trouble," said Hoffman.

DETROIT, March 22.—(UP)—Police continued their eviction drive against sit-down strikers today, and the United Automobile Workers' union, believing law enforcement agents might move against 6000 Chrysler corporation sit-downers soon, threatened to draw up a petition asking for the recall of Mayor Frank Couzens.

Threat Renewed Homer Martin, U. A. W. president, received reports that sit-downers had been driven out of the Fort street W. P. A. station and the Thomas P. Henry printing plant, and then renewed his threat to call a general strike in Detroit automotive plants.

"Will it happen today?" he was asked.

"Anything might happen today," Martin replied.

Application Rejected The union and Detroit law enforcement agents moved closer to a showdown after the city council rejected an application by U. A. W. leaders to hold a mass meeting in Cadillac square tomorrow evening.

Martin said the meeting would be held anyway and that he would be one of the speakers.

Couzens, son of the late United States senator, has been active in the eviction of sit-downers, frequently accompanying police on their raids.

Gov. Frank Murphy went to Lansing, the state capital, but said he would keep in touch with the Detroit strike situation. Martin wrote him a letter, asking Murphy to "give the workers of this state a square deal by demanding that the Chrysler corporation abide by the Wagner Labor act."

OPEN DEBATE ON TWO H. B. OIL BILLS

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 22.—(UP)—The tidelands oil drilling controversy that has occupied the attention of legislators for years became a featured topic of debate today in the state senate.

One bill was sponsored by Sen. W. P. Rich and Ralph E. Swins, Republicans. The other was introduced by Senator Culbert L. Olson, Democrat.

Somewhat similar in that each would authorize the state to grant drilling leases at Huntington Beach on a competitive bidding basis, the bills differed in regard to royalties and other provisions.

The Rich-Swings measure would require a minimum royalty of 12 2-3 per cent, while Olson's would set the royalty at 30 per cent. Olson's also would prevent monopolies in the field. Each bill would permit the state to do its own drilling if bids were not acceptable.

Swins, in opening discussion on the oil subject, devoted an hour to explaining his bill.

"The people of Southern California will not stand for tideland drilling except as a last resort and then probably only by the state itself," Swins said, explaining that his bill would limit tideland oil development to slant drilling from littoral lands adjacent to the beaches.

"The logical persons to develop the pool are those who now have the right to slant drill from littoral lands, because they can do it immediately and without drilling in the tidelands."

As the legislature began the fourth week of its spring session after the weekend recess, Assemblyman Charles Stream, San Diego, introduced a bill to appropriate $25,000 to finance expenses of the assembly during the session. This was expected to reopen the fight which started when Gov. Frank F. Merriam vetoed a $50,000 appropriation measure and the assembly Democrats were unable to muster enough votes to pass the bill over his veto.

SEVEN KILLED IN PORTO RICO RIOTS

SAN JUAN, PORTO RICO, March 22.—(UP)—Gov. Blanton Winship was expected today to take direct charge of an investigation into a riot at Ponce, chief city of the south coast, in which seven persons were killed and 40 injured, some perhaps fatally.

Police Chief Blanco of Ponce, in a telegram to the capital, said that nationalists fired on police who tried to halt their parade. After a policeman was wounded, it was said, the police used machine guns on the paraders.

One of the killed was a policeman and it was feared another policeman would die. Five more policemen were among the wounded.

54 PERSONS DROWN PUSAN, Korea, March 22.—(UP)—The ferryboat Meiji Maru capsized near Reiai today. Twenty-nine bodies were recovered and 16 were missing. Rescuers saved 25.

TAXIS SMASHED IN CHICAGO

The smashed taxicab shown at a Chicago loop corner was just one of seven wrecked by striking cab drivers who fought police and non-striking cabbies in the Windy City's busy downtown district. Seven persons were injured, three cabs were burned, bricks crashed through the windows of autos. Thirty-four men were arrested. It was one of Chicago's worst strike riots in years.

SEAMEN ISSUE NEW DEMANDS

BULLETIN SAN PEDRO, Cal., March 22.—(UP)—Picketing of the freighter Lancaster was resumed this afternoon by maritime unionists after they met no response to their demand that part of the ship's crew be dismissed.

SAN PEDRO, Cal., March 22.—(UP)—The Seamen's union today demanded that five members of the crew of the freighter Lancaster be discharged on threat that picketing would be resumed if operators failed to comply with the request.

Picketing had been halted by the Seamen's union this morning after the Waterfront Employers' association threatened to sever relations with the International Longshoremen's association if the dock workers did not report for work.

Following a conference of union officials, the Seamen's union agreed not to post the pickets and five gangs of longshoremen began unloading the boat, on charter to Weyerhaeuser lumber interests. A few hours later the demand that five seamen be discharged was made.

The Lancaster had been ruled "unfair" by longshoremen because its crew refused to join the "rank and file" strike recently on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts.

MRS. MCPHERSON RECEIVES THREAT

LOS ANGELES, March 22.—(UP)—Aimee Semple McPherson, noted woman evangelist, today went into hiding while police sought the author of a letter threatening her with harm.

After refusing for nearly a day to disclose the text of the note, police finally made it public. The note, written in pencil on common scratch paper, said:

"Madam: We won't you to give up the temple at once and if we see you there after March 18, we're coming to take you away ourselves. We're fed up with your bull people of L. A. C. Cornwood."

Police reported the writer of the note had made no attempt to disguise his handwriting. The letter had been mailed last Tuesday at 6 p. m. at Arcade post office.

Coffin And Body Burned At Service

When a burning candle fell upon the coffin at a wake for Miss Juanita Avilla, 15, last evening at 1826 West Third, $300 damages resulted to the home, according to reports of Fire Marshal Elmer Gates, who investigated. The body was slightly burned but features were not marred, according to Gates.

Outer covering of the casket was burned off as the fire gained headway in the one-story frame structure. The fire was discovered by Mrs. Virginia Andong, resident of the home, according to the fire marshal.

A traffic tieup near the scene of the fire brought traffic tickets to half a dozen motorists, the fire marshal reported. He said two of the fire trucks were completely blocked from reaching the fire scene. Motorists are asked to observe the law which prohibits motorists from driving in a fire zone while fire fighters are at work on a fire and which prohibits them from following fire apparatus. The fire started about 6:40 o'clock last night.

Funeral services for Miss Avilla were conducted this morning from Brown and Wagner funeral chapel, with interment following at Santa Ana cemetery.

Starting late last night, rain of almost cloudburst proportions swept over Orange county, adding an average of .75 of an inch to the already high rain table for the season.

The heaviest rainfall was recorded in Orange, where 1.09 inches fell within a few hours, bringing the seasonal total up to 26.92, the highest of any location in the county with the exception of Santiago dam, where the seasonal total is 28.33 inches.

In Santa Ana .89 of an inch fell during the period after 10 p. m. yesterday, bringing the total up to 22.25 inches as compared to the 7.35 inches that had fallen up to this time last year and 8.78 inches for the entire season.

The weather forecast indicates additional rain tonight and Tuesday, with clearing weather for Wednesday. Clouds hanging over the county throughout the day gave additional proof that the storm had not passed.

LOS ANGELES, March 22.—(UP)—A brisk rainfall drenched Southern California today, bringing nearly an inch of precipitation in Los Angeles by mid-morning.

Hail fell in several sections surrounding the city.

ARRANGE REPAIRS ON AMELIA'S PLANE

BURBANK, Cal., March 22.—(UP)—George Palmer Putnam, husband of Amelia Earhart, arrived here today from Oakland to arrange for the repair of the famous woman flyer's plane.

Putnam reported the plane would be brought here from Honolulu aboard an army transport and should arrive within a few days after Miss Earhart gets here on Thursday.

PRESIDENT'S PROGRAM HIT BY JUSTICE

WASHINGTON, March 22.—(UP)—An expression by Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes that President Roosevelt's judicial reorganization plan would "impair" supreme court efficiency today touched off strong judiciary committee sentiment to substitute a constitutional amendment for the president's court program.

Wheeler First Witness The chief justice's views—first formal expression of supreme court sentiment on the controversial judiciary question—were presented in a letter read by Sen. Burton K. Wheeler, D. Mont., first witness to oppose Mr. Roosevelt's program at the judiciary committee hearings.

Wheeler led the move to substitute a constitutional amendment for court enlargement and stated that a "majority" of the foes of Mr. Roosevelt's plan would support a drive for quick passage of an amendment.

O'Mahoney Backs Plan Wheeler's suggestion met strong approval from Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney, D. Wyo., who proposed that the committee cut short testimony and seek to agree on an amendment plan.

The Hughes' letter was concurred in by Associate Justices Willis Van Devanter and Louis D. Brandeis, deans of the conservative and liberal court factions. Hughes said he believed it reflected substantially the views of the rest of the court.

Letter Requested Wheeler explained that the chief justice had written the letter in response to a request by the senator for an authoritative statement on the court's position.

Hughes' letter made plain that he was limiting his observations to the technical phases of the president's court enlargement program.

GLENDALE MAN DROWNS IN BAY

Verne Wilson, 35, of Glendale, was drowned yesterday in Newport bay when the light boat in which he and Henry Strzelecki, of Burbank, were going ashore capsized off Channel island. The body was recovered approximately an hour later by Fire Chief F. W. Crocker, Dick Johnston of the fire department and Harold Caldwell, from the office of Harbormaster Thomas Bouchee, after they had dragged the harbor.

Wilson and Strzelecki were at work on the Patsy B. boat owned by Dr. Stanley Anderson, of Burbank, repainting the craft. Shortly after 4 p. m. they started for shore, in a light skiff, equipped with an outboard motor, to purchase another can of paint.

According to Fire Chief Crocker the boat either capsized or filled with water and sank. Wilson, who could not swim, sank to the bottom of the harbor while Strzelecki managed to keep afloat until rescuers reached him.

WATER GROUP WILL MEET HERE TONIGHT

The committee recently appointed by the county supervisors to study a plan of underground water control, is scheduled to hold its first meeting this evening at the courthouse, following its organization with Dian R. Gardner, president of the Orange County Farm Bureau, as chairman.

The committee is expected to discuss in a general way the problems confronting it, and has asked County Flood Control Engineer M. N. Thompson to come before the meeting for that purpose.

The meeting is set for 7:30 in the supervisors' chamber.

TANKER TORN IN HALF

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—(UP)—Associated Oil company's tanker Frank H. Buck, damaged in a collision with the Dollar liner President Coolidge, was torn in half by heavy seas last night and its stern hurled onto the rocks off Land's End. Salvagers abandoned efforts to save the craft.

CREW OF BURNING STEAMER RESCUED

LONDON, March 22.—(UP)—Lifeboats fought through blinding smoke today to rescue the crew of the British steamship Marie Moller, burning fiercely fore and aft off Holyhead on the Welsh coast.

Holyhead lifeboats took off about 10 of the crew, mostly Chinese, and returned for the rest of 73 whom the ship carried.

All were taken ashore safely. The condition of the ship was considered hopeless.

The ship's master wireless for a fire boat from Liverpool after two explosions started a fire aboard. The flames burst high from the decks and the ship fought its way to within 1-1/2 miles of Holyhead, where it anchored in the moderate sea.

GLUE TO BLAST IS GIVEN BOARD

New London school janitors had tapped the Parade company line and made the connection.

"I understood that Mr. Shaw gave the orders to do the work," he testified.

A pipe line was constructed in a shallow ditch several hundred yards from the school to the parade line. The union was made in a shallow ditch and later was covered with earth after it had remained exposed for two or three days for line tests, the janitor said.

Eliminated Fuel Costs
Shaw testified that until about a month ago when the Parade company's line was tapped the school's heating bill had been running between $150 and $200 a month. The new connection eliminated fuel costs.

"Who made the negotiations for taking this gas?" asked Capt. E. Z. Coombes, judge advocate of the military court.

"No one," Shaw replied, brushing at his face, which was dotted with tiny wounds made by flying debris.

"Did officials of the Parade company know of this connection?" The judge advocate pressed.

"No."

Captain Coombes asked Shaw whether the question of making this connection with the Parade company's line was taken up by the school board.

Discussed By Board
"It was discussed at the board meeting prior to making the connection," the superintendent replied.

"Anything said about the right or the wrong of such a connection?" he asked.

"No," he replied. "The law?" asked Captain Coombes.

"We were a unit in deciding to make the connection," the witness replied, adding that five of the seven members of the school board were present at the meeting.

Shaw admitted that after the connection with the Parade company's line was made that the board asked United Gas company officials to leave a skeleton connection at the building so that a connection for service could be made quickly if necessary.

Against Company Policy
Delbert Clark, field foreman of the Parade Gas company, the first witness to disclose the unauthorized connection, said that it is a flat policy of his company to sell no gas and that it is his duty to cut connection for such service. He said he did not know of the New London school connection and would have cut it had he known.

Shaw, who walked unsteadily to the witness chair although assisted by a friend, had been in seclusion over the week end. His 17 year old son, Clifton, was among the victims.

Tells of Arrangement
He testified that Parade company officials had told him during a discussion of a gas supply for the school that if he connected with the company lines he was liable to be cut loose from them any time.

"Did they absolutely forbid you?" asked Captain Coombes.

"No, but they didn't tell me to do so."

"That was your understanding then—as long as you didn't get caught tapping the line?"

"That's about the situation. I want to make this clear. They didn't give me permission but they were not adverse."

BODY OF PLANE SUICIDE MISSING

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., March 22.—(UP)—The body of the first man to commit suicide by leaping from an American commercial airplane was lost today in the rugged California hills.

He was Anatol Maren, 30, a WPA official from San Francisco, bound for Los Angeles on a vacation.

The United Air Lines plane was at 11,000 foot altitude Saturday night when he slipped from his seat, smashed the glass seal on an emergency door, opened it and stepped off, plunging to death in the darkness.

All day Sunday his body was sought by land and air. An airplane followed the course of the San Francisco-Los Angeles radio beam, retracing the route several times to guide the crew of ground searchers on its way. The posse beat through heavy brush for miles and last night the search was ended.

DANCE MANAGER KILLED
NEW YORK, March 22.—(UP)—Half an hour after Alfred Rossi, 35, manager of a dime-a-dance hall, ordered four men from the place early today, one of the returned and shot Rossi to death. The killer fled and was lost in the crowd on the street.

First Wonder of New York Fair

Both inside and out, the "theme structures" of New York's 1939 World Fair will dramatize "The World Tomorrow," according to plans for construction of the 200-foot sphere and a 700-foot triangular pylon shown in the architects' visualization. The sphere will house a vast auditorium and the theme exhibit; the pylon will be the tower from which fair broadcasts will emanate. Fountains below the sphere will make it seem to float on water, and it will be ringed by an elevated ramp, on which pageants will be presented.

LAUNCH ATTACK ON REBEL BASE

WITH LOYALIST ARMY, March 22.—(UP)—Gen. Jose Miaja, defender of Madrid, began an attack today on Sigüenza, nationalist base of operations 72 miles northeast of the capital, army dispatches said.

Rail Station Bombed
A loyalist air fleet, winging ahead of the rapidly advancing government forces, bombed the Sigüenza railway station, destroying several army trains on which munitions and men were being concentrated, government headquarters reported.

Another bombing squadron "caught" a nationalist supply train of 1000 trucks on the Aragon highway as it retreated toward Sigüenza with munitions and arms salvaged from the Guadalajara defeat.

Form Three Columns
As the Italian units of Gen. Emilio Mola's nationalist army, which launched the fifth Madrid offensive from Sigüenza on March 8, continued to retreat in disorder, the advance became so rapid that the loyalists abandoned their battle lines and split into three columns.

One column went forward on the left side of the Aragon highway to attack Buñolero, in the environs of Sigüenza, and threatened Cogolludo, on the retreating army's right flank.

A center column, mechanized, sped up the Aragon highway, passing Naval Porre and capturing Almadrones, the jump-off line of the recent offensive against Madrid, before continuing on to Algora, six miles south of Sigüenza. The third (right) column occupied Masegoso, went on to capture Cogolludo and threaten Almadrones and La Fuenaviviana, eight miles southeast of Sigüenza.

Find Mustard Gas
For the first time in the Spanish civil war, evidence of the use of lethal gas was disclosed. Ernest Hemingway, author who served in an Italian ambulance unit during the World War, identified several unexploded shells as containing mustard gas. They were found at Brihuega, the Italian units' headquarters during the attack on Guadalajara, Madrid's last northeastern outpost, a few days ago.

MRS. HELEN LOVE GAINING STRENGTH

LOS ANGELES, March 22.—(UP)—Mrs. Helen Wills Love, apparently fully recovered from her recent seven-day coma, today was reported gaining back her strength rapidly at the county jail hospital.

Jail matrons reported Mrs. Love was resting well and her appetite was normal.

Barring a possible relapse, attendants believed Mrs. Love will be ready to appear in court April 2, when she is scheduled to undergo a sanity hearing in connection with her conviction on second degree murder for the death of her husband, Harry A. Love.

small island perhaps ten miles distant, Vauvau, by the way, is in the Friendly Islands group at the southernmost tip of the chain of Fiji Islands. Nukoloufa is the principal one of the group, as the residence island of the native queen, reigning under the British protectorate.

Haven of Swallows
When the awed tourists arrived at the island of their destination, they had a new and surprising experience, for they were taken into a grotto, described by Winbigler as the size of two large city blocks, and as exquisitely colored as the famous Blue Grotto of Capri. But its color and gently lapping blue waters were not its sole charm. It was the haven of untold myriads of swallows!

The little creatures were skimming through the water, making arrow flights through the pellucid air, and darting out through the entrance in a marvelous pattern of color and design. Those in the party had been warned to make no outcry nor any sudden movement to startle the birds, for it was explained impressively that they were sacred.

Despite their curiosity, none in the party could learn why the swallows were sacred, until Winbigler found one old native who could speak broken English. He told the story. Many years ago, in the days of their forefathers, the Islanders were cannibals, and their ruler lived on Nukoloufa. The beautiful blue grotto was peopled with mermaids, the loveliest things in the world.

Mermaids Transformed
The cannibal king desired to wed the most beautiful of the mermaids, and despatched a boatload of his most fearsome warriors to make the capture and bring the maiden to his nipa palace. When the warriors roved their dugouts into the magic grotto, the mermaids were desperate. They appealed to their gods for aid, and straightway every exquisite mermaid was transformed into a swallow!

To this day, the Islanders believe each swift-winged bird bears the heart of a beautiful mermaid, and the birds are sacred, because the gods intervened in their behalf. Nor do the natives know where the little creatures go at certain times of the year. All they know is, that they are there one day—and the next day the blue grotto is empty. There will be months of flashing wings and cheery bird calls—and then quiet. Have the gods taken the swallows into their own special care, to live again as mermaids for a few brief months?

An Explanation?
The natives do not know. Nor do they know that in a distant land of which they have never

KEN Murray SAYS:

HOLLYWOOD, March 22.—That was certainly an affable crack the Federal Reserve Board chief, Eccles, got off the other day about increasing income taxes. It isn't enough to confiscate the golden eggs that we geese lay. Now they're after our pate de foie gras, too.

Already the slug on the Hollywood stars is terrific. Uncle Sam took Bing Crosby's shirt and underpants, and Clark Gable's union suit. What they left of Mae West's foundation garments, I don't know.

The only guy that got as tough a break as the American taxpayer was Julius Caesar. They took his life on the 15th of March. But they laid off his estate.

Now I see Congress is looking Andy Mellon's gift art museum in the mouth. Andy wants to give the nation $40,000,000 worth of paintings and a $10,000,000 palace to house 'em in. And Congress is out in the back yard looking for a Topsy in the woodpile.

heard, clouds of swallows darken the sky on March 19, as the famous swallows of San Juan Capistrano Mission return after an unexplained absence, to their familiar haunts, there to dart, and fly, mate and build nests, and start the magic cycle of bird life all over again for a few brief summer months.

Perhaps these birds never saw the exquisite blue grotto. Perhaps the miles between are too many for even their swift wings. But isn't it a wonderful story to dream about?

In Pasadena hail also fell, with the hailstones turning to sleet in higher regions towards the foothills.

The rain turned to snow in mountain and foothill areas. At San Bernardino, snow forced the Pittsburgh Pirate baseball team to move indoors to the National Orange Show building for work-outs.

12 HURT, ONE NEAR DEATH IN ROAD MISHAPS

A dozen persons, one critically, were injured in Orange county week-end highway traffic, police and hospital records show.

Most seriously injured, Leroy Worcester, 40, of Bellflower, was believed to have been a victim of a hit-and-run motorist, Saturday night near Huntington Beach. He was rushed to county hospital in Dixon's ambulance and found to be suffering from possible skull fracture, internal injuries and possible fractured arm. His condition is "critical," attendants said.

Two Slightly Hurt
Fred Flores, 23, San Gabriel, was treated at county hospital early yesterday morning for cuts and bruises following the collision of his car and one operated by Lenora McFarren, 19, 417 East Chestnut, Santa Ana, in the 2000 block, North Main. Miss McFarren and her companion, Janet Liekhus, Anaheim, were slightly injured. Henry Butzbach, Long Beach, told sheriff's officers a cow dashed into the path of his car last night on Lincoln boulevard, near Cypress, smashing the car radiator and fender and injuring Mrs. Butzbach.

Leo Waugh, 20, was given first aid at county hospital early yesterday morning for lacerated scalp, following an accident. Mable C. Brown, Fullerton, driving a car owned by A. B. Corona, Fullerton, on Lincoln between Brookhurst and Magnolia, Anaheim, Sunday midnight, apparently fell asleep at the wheel. The car struck a telephone pole, injuring both persons.

Anaheim Collision
A. L. Lehr, San Bernardino, had his little finger nearly severed from his hand yesterday afternoon at Santa Ana and Lemon streets, Anaheim, when his car collided with one operated by C. W. Becker, 1120 West Chestnut, Anaheim. He was taken to Fullerton general hospital.

A car driven by R. D. Woods, Fullerton, collided with one operated by Jack Williams, Hughson, Calif., last night at Commonwealth avenue and Spadra road, Fullerton. The Williams car overturned but five occupants escaped injury. En route to San Francisco on vacation trip, Miss Joyce Newton, Placentia, escaped injury Saturday when her car collided with R. W. Taylor's at Commonwealth and Brookhurst, Fullerton. Miss Newton's companion, Miss Birdina Walters, Long Beach teacher, was injured. Taylor is a Fullerton resident.

Hurt Seriously
Mr. and Mrs. Mohn C. Alford, seriously injured, were brought to Fullerton general hospital, Saturday afternoon, after their car overturned in Brea canyon. It was believed the couple suffered internal injuries. Mrs. Floyd E. Whittey, Long Beach, suffered shock last night, at Fourth and Pacific, when cars driven by her husband and Arthur Arroyo, Westminster, collided. Abraham Sepeda, Westminster, also was injured slightly. At Santa Clara and Grand avenues, a car operated by Manuel Salcido, Orange, and a truck operated by Logan V. Price, Orange, collided Saturday without personal injuries. Robert Ray, Orange, told Santa Ana police, a hit-and-run Mexican smashed into his parked car at 410 East Second, Saturday afternoon, and escaped.

Bert Mansur, 26, 1024 Cypress, suffered cuts about the leg in the 200 block, Bush street, Saturday, when his bicycle collided with a car operated by J. W. Welch, 70 601 West First. Leo Hernandez, Santa Ana, was jailed for 15 days by Orange county police today following conviction on a drunk charge, outcome of a car accident on East Chapman, near Tustin street, Orange, Saturday. Jennie Palmer, 58, Anaheim, was injured in Los Angeles county, yesterday afternoon, as cars operated by F. M. Thompson, Orange, and Harry Sneller, Bellflower, collided. The accident occurred on Lincoln avenue, the result of jumping a boulevard stop, witnesses said.

INGVOLDSTAD WILL SPEAK WEDNESDAY

One of the ablest lecturers on the American forum platform will give the news review at the Unitarian church Wednesday evening. Fred W. Ingvolstad, D. D., recently returned from his second European tour, stressing especially the new constitution in Russia, the progress of Sweden in its Middle Way, and the news from war-torn Spain. Dr. Ingvolstad is a prominent Methodist clergyman, having served the large Methodist church in the capital city of Oklahoma for many years until his interest in world relations took him into the field of travel and lecture.

Dr. Ingvolstad returns to Santa Ana by the popular demand of the many friends who heard him last year at the local Methodist church.

Dr. Ingvolstad is an artist in language, his words melting into line and color to form vivid pictures for his audiences. The meeting will be called at 7:30. The public is invited to attend.

FLOWER FETE IN KERN COUNTY IS SET FOR SUNDAY

Word was received by the Automobile Club of Southern California today that the opening of the Kern County Wild Flower Festival has been set for next Sunday.

The location of the Flower festival is one mile south and three miles east of Shafter. Thousands of acres of lupins and poppies are now showing in all their splendor, according to the report.

The 1937 Festival is being sponsored by the Exchange club of Shafter assisted by the Kern County Chamber of Commerce. At 9 a. m. the festivities will be opened with a sunrise Easter service and at 2 p. m. a program will be given by the Exchange club.

A warning also has been issued by the Kern county supervisors against wanton destruction of flowers. Also everyone is warned to keep their cars on the roads and not drive into the fields.

ESQUIVEL TRIAL STARTED TODAY

The second trial of Jesus Esquivel, charged with the murder of Salvador Lopez in Santa Ana in 1929, was started today in Superior Judge James L. Allen's court.

The first trial, a few weeks ago, resulted in a jury disagreement. A new jury was being examined today by District Attorney W. P. Menton, personally in charge of the prosecution, and N. D. Meyer, counsel for the defense. The jury probably will not be completed until late today.

Esquivel is charged with shooting Lopez to death in an alley near Logan street, the Santa Ana Mexican quarter, on April 14, 1929. They had quarreled over the wife of Lopez, it is charged.

Esquivel disappeared, but was located by the authorities recently at Martinez, Contra Costa county.

SCHOOL NEWS

Frances Willard

Bill Hull was elected president of the Willard Boys' and Girls' Tennis club at a meeting, March 18, in room 105. Carroll Jeanne Brinkerhoff was chosen vice-president; Lillian Breaux, Aileen Smith, and George Platt, secretary-treasurer, social chairman, and boy's athletic manager.

A mixed doubles tournament was planned for the near future. The first eight girls played the second eight boys in the afternoon of March 18. Bill Hull played first singles for the boys and Marjorie Mize first for the girls.

Mrs. Nellie Smith announced to her H-S-C English class, Monday, March 15, that since the year 1933, the English classes of Willard have been selecting compositions, theses, and poems, to form a book. They plan to publish the book in the near future.

The constitution was discussed at the regular meeting of the Nos Amici Club held at the home of Dorothy Frazer, Tuesday. New rules were made to go into the constitution. It was decided that the membership should never reach more than 30 and that all members have to be voted in by a two-thirds majority.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served to Frances Page, Jean Conliffe, Lillian Breaux, Virginia Campbell, Phyllis Bemis, Marion Kenyon, Mary Catherine Friend, Katharine Hambricht, Aileen Smith, Fern Hendricks, Barbara Flower, Carol Brinkerhoff, Dorothy Frazer, and Rosemary Blodgett.

The Boys Glee club, directed by Mr. Michel, gave a program at the Women's Club, Tuesday afternoon. On the evening of the same date the club repeated the program for McKinley P. T. A.

An octet which consisted of Bill Earle, Kenneth Mendenhall, Bill McBurney, Bob Nelson, Alfred Morgan, Harold Montana, Keith Jones, and Lloyd Groover, sang "Freckled Frog" and "Bill Grogan's Goat." The program continued with the entire glee club singing "Down Mobile," "What Did Tennessee?" and "Crow Song."

"Democracy and the Republicans" was the subject of a panel discussion held in Mrs. Smith's H-S social studies class, Friday, under the chairmanship of Pat Mercier.

The bunk-type beds made by Freeman Claus in woodshop class, have been assembled and put into use at his home, 1509 West First street. The beds are of Oregon pine painted white with antique glaze.

A panel on "Social Life of New York and Philadelphia" was presented in Mrs. Smith's H-S Social Science class this week. Taking part in the discussion were Doreen Haas, Doris Jesse, Paul Patton, Jane Holmes, George Platt and Jack Baldwin.

For the past week, Mrs. Minge's H-S-D English class has been studying oration. Each person is to present a short talk on an interesting and entertaining subject.

Three class members grade the speaker on his choice of subject, delivery, posture and pronunciation. Old Ironsides, archery, soap collecting have been discussed by the group to date.

Ninth graders enjoyed an assembly program recently. Junior college Treble Clef Club presented two numbers, and the high school presented scenes from the operetta "Sweethearts."

Two former Willard students, Stanley Pearson and Dempsey Pride, contributed their talents to this interesting assembly.

Miss Mary Boyer, of Santa Ana public library, gave a interesting talk on puppets.

An exhibit of sea life sponsored by the Sea Fan club is now on display in the library. Included in the exhibit are a sea anemone, sea urchin, a hermit crab, a snail, an abalone, a sea hare, and a star fish. This club is sponsored by Mr. Schmid, who helps the club members collect specimens.

HIGHWAYS IN NORTH FLOODED

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—(UP)—Streets and highways in the San Francisco bay region were flooded today and farm lands in the Sacramento area were threatened with inundation following one of the heaviest downpours of rain in months.

Close Flood Gates
The state highway department closed the flood gates between North and South Sacramento after the American river rose six feet to reach the 23-foot-stage. Continued rains would bring the river up an additional foot today, it was predicted.

At Colusa, scores of farmers answered emergency calls and were patrolling the levees today in an attempt to prevent damage to 250,000 acres of valuable wheat lands in that valley.

Report Flood Conditions
Flood conditions were reported near Marysville with both the Yuba and Feather river valleys being inundated in the lower sections.

One hundred feet of the coast line tracks of the Southern Pacific railway were washed out near Lincoln, making it necessary to reroute all traffic. It was reported that the Pacific highway was flooded and impassable in 17 different places between Galt and Sacramento.

Travel Halted
Heavy rains and accompanying floods halted travel on the San Jose-Alviso road; on El Camino real between San Francisco and San Jose, and on the roads near Pescadero and the Belmont-Half Moon bay roads.

Traffic on the Western Pacific line was disrupted today by a washout which caused the locomotive and 10 cars of a freight train to leave the tracks at Pleasant Grove, in Sutter county, today. No one was injured.

2 Men Nabbed By Anaheim Officers

Leonard Massagale, 28, of 720 Flint street, and Rudy H. Brown, 28, of 724 Flint street, Wilmington, were held by Anaheim police on a hit and run charge.

The car in which they were riding crashed into cars parked on Los Angeles street, at 9:10 last night. The car belonging to Arnold Lund of 1120 Lincoln street, Anaheim, and one registered to a Ferguson of Fullerton, were damaged.

Cecil Harris of the Hoover hotel, Fullerton, who was sitting in the Ferguson car, reported the accident.

The Wilmington men abandoned their car when pursued by police and were captured in an orange grove.

Neither man would admit driving the car at the time of the accident and were booked on the hit-and-run charge filed by Harris and Lund.

Mrs. S. M. Beal Is Dead at Her Home

Mrs. Sadie M. Beal, 62, of 1601 Willits street, this city, died late Saturday at her home after an illness that lasted nearly two years. She was born in Wayne county, Ia., and had lived in Santa Ana for the last year.

She was the widow of Lannis H. Beal, and is survived by three brothers, John H. Milligan, Samuel Milligan, of Kansas, and Will Milligan, of Seattle; two sisters, Mrs. A. E. Kohler, Santa Ana; and Mrs. L. O. Warne, of Covina, Calif.

Funeral arrangements will be announced tomorrow at the Brown and Wagner funeral home.

Willard Echo's yearly April Fool's day edition the Hecho will be on sale March 31.

Jimmie Carrillo, Amery Loy, Joel Hayes, Donald Jiles, George Abel, Le Roy Harmon, and Eugene Murphy were initiated at the regular weekly meeting of the Willard W-L-Y Club, Tuesday, at the Y. M. C. A. Howard Paul, Roger Law, and Warren Paul were in charge. Jack Baldwin was appointed master of ceremonies for the H-Y sports dance March 19 at the Y. M. C. A. Roger Low and Ed Robinson were in charge of refreshments; Jack Baldwin, Jimmie Carrillo, Phyllis Bemis, and Aileen Smith, decorations.

MEETING POSTPONED

A meeting at which time the tomato pro-rate program was to have been established, has been postponed until next month, according to Ross E. Crane, assistant farm adviser. The meeting had been originally set for this week.

POLICE CHIEF SAYS STUDENTS NOT TO BLAME IN VANDALISM

College students in Newport and Balboa for the annual "College Week," held as a part of the Easter vacation, were not responsible for acts of vandalism reported over the week-end, according to Chief of Police R. R. Hodgkinson.

Ten houses on Seashore Colony Tract, whose owners were absent, were burglarized by two Newport boys 10 and 16 years of age, Hodgkinson said. Both boys have confessed and are being held in the county detention home.

"It is unfair to blame college students who come here for the week for something they did not do," Hodgkinson said today. "As a matter of fact they are more orderly this year than they have been in several years."

"Saturday night, the first night of 'College Week,' we arrested 16 persons on drunk charges. On the same night last year we arrested approximately 30 persons. Sunday night it was so quiet that the six extra patrolmen that I have on duty for the week were released three hours before their shift ended."

In several of the homes entered by the two boys nothing was taken but property, valued at hundreds of dollars was damaged by acts of vandalism, it was reported.

PREP BALL TOURNEY OFF UNTIL THURSDAY

Wet grounds today forced postponement of Pomona's annual Southern California high school invitational baseball tournament until Thursday.

Thirty-eight teams will play first round games Thursday, the semi-finals will be held Friday and the finals Saturday.

Santa Ana meets Excelsior in the opener, the clubs playing at 8:30 at Pomona college, Claremont. Other first round pairings: South Pasadena vs. San Bernardino at Bonita; El Monte vs. Alhambra at Fremont; Valencia vs. Glendale at South Pomona High diamond; Pasadena vs. Whittier, Spanish-American diamond; Brea vs. Glinda vs. Pomona North High School field; Chino vs. Covina at Chino; Montebello vs. Anaheim at La Verne College; Burbank vs. Inglewood, fairgrounds.

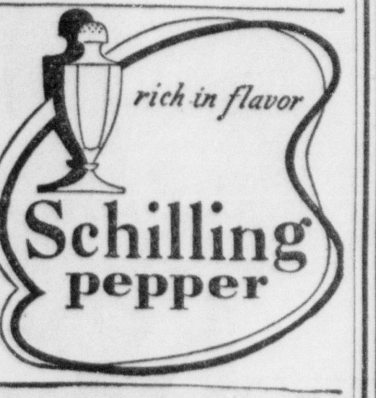

10:30 a. m.—San Diego vs. Santa Paula, North Pomona High diamond; Bonita vs. Redondo at Bonita; Santa Maria vs. Colton, South Pomona High diamond; Monrovia vs. Woodrow Wilson of Long Beach, Fremont High field; Compton vs. Long Beach at Chino; Hoover vs. Glendale vs. Muir Tech, fairground; St. Augustine vs. Escondido, Spanish-American field; Sweetwater vs. Fullerton, La Verne College; Grossmont vs. Hoover of San Diego, La Verne Grammar school; Citrus vs. Santa Monica, Pomona College.

4 SPEEDERS FINED, 16 OTHERS NABBED

Four persons were fined in city court Saturday, after pleading guilty to speeding charges. They were, R. Echols, Upland, $6; A. L. Haas, Los Angeles, $6; Alex Lowe, Santa Ana, $5, and Horace Birdsell, Santa Ana, $5. Mrs. H. R. Nece, Orange, was fined $2 for making improper arm signal. Mamie Lamb and C. B. Crenshaw were fined $2 each for boulevard stop jumping.

Sixteen persons were ticketed by city police during the week-end on charges of speeding; nine were charged with boulevard stop jumping.

In connection with a checkup regarding the campaign on at present to bring safety to Santa Ana streets it was revealed that 208 persons have been charged with speeding, to date, as compared with 44 last year at the same time. To date, 141 tickets, charging other traffic violations, have been issued this year, as compared with but one, last night, during the same period.

Use Bottles To Check On Sardines

SAN DIEGO, Cal., March 22.—(UP)—Six thousand wine bottles, all tightly corked and sealed, were being tossed into the Pacific ocean to bob around between San Diego and Port San Luis today as scientists began a searching inquiry into the private life of the lowly sardine.

Each bottle, of clear glass, contains a message, asking that an enclosed card be returned to the state fisheries laboratory on Terminal island. All because the larvae, eggs and young of the sardine drift with surface currents, in an effort to unravel the private life of the sardine, became of prime interest to science.

CHAPEL SERVICE PLAN REVEALED

The Easter story will be told in song, and in a sermon by the Rev. Henry F. Soffley in an impressive service to be held in the chapel at Melrose Abbey next Sunday.

While the service is scheduled to start at 5:53 a. m., doors to the chapel will be opened at 5:30 a. m. The service will be in charge of the Trinity Episcopal Church of Orange and will present a vested choir of 50 voices under direction of Myra Armstrong. Margaret Bauer will assist at the organ.

The chapel will be beautifully decorated with Spring blossoms and ferns the chapel will present a scene of impressive beauty. As the service in the chapel was arranged for the benefit of Orange county residents who are unable to attend outdoor services because of cold and dampness the building will be heated.

In the afternoon, at 3 p. m., the usual Musical Memory Hour will be presented by the Calvary Baptist church of Anaheim, under direction of Winifred Sloop. The Rev. Hudson of Pasadena will give the Easter message.

The vested choir of 25 voices, from the Calvary church, is considered one of the outstanding choirs in Orange county. David Craighead, boy organist of Santa Ana, will accompany the choir.

Local Shriners Home from Canyon

Santa Ana Shriners returned today from a week-end trip to Grand Canyon where they accompanied Shriners from all parts of Southern California for an initiation ceremony during which 60 candidates became members of the organization.

There was one carload of Shrine members from Santa Ana included in the train of eight coaches making the trip from Southern California. The Santa Ana group left at 6 p. m. Friday and arrived at Fullerton at 8 o'clock this morning.

Metz, Howard Heisler, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hosmer, George Thompson, Arthur C. Peterson, Mrs. Ramona Harris, P. Marriner, Frank Hevener, Charles Prisk, Richard A. Bird, Lloyd Acord, Noel Elliott West, Mrs. Joe Scott, Mrs. William A. Griffith, and many others.

On hand, is $450.00, the estimated cost of building materials is $1,275.00, leaving a balance of $825 to be raised in cash or pledges, as pre-requisite to securing the WPA labor grant, sought for to complete the work.

In 1930 the tax on gasoline cost a motorist $18.60 a year. In 1936 the average cost was $31.00 a year. At the same rate of increase, the cost per year in 1950 will be approximately $105.

DR. AKER WILL SPEAK TONIGHT TO OPEN SERIES

Evangelistic services for Holy Week are being conducted nightly at Spurgeon Memorial church, starting this evening, it was announced by Dr. C. M. Aker, pastor.

Dr. Aker will speak tonight on "Wronging Our Own Souls." A special preliminary program of music, Scripture reading and prayer will be sponsored by the women of the missionary society, of which Mrs. Max Temple is president.

Each evening a different group will sponsor the program. The Wesley Fellowship, composed of younger married people, will have charge tomorrow evening, and the Rev. W. S. Buchanan, pastor of the First Christian church, will be guest speaker.

On Wednesday evening, the Kingdom Builders, an older married group will direct the preliminary program.

A communion service, commemorating the Last Supper, will be conducted Thursday evening.

Friday will be young people's night, with Judge Kenneth E. Morrison directing a program presented by Scouts and other groups.

SERIES OF LENTEN RITES TO BE HELD

WESTMINSTER, March 22.—The pre-Easter series of services, as arranged by the West Orange County Council of Religious Education, opens this evening, and will continue through the week. Sermon topics for the six services are announced.

Tonight, at Alamitos Friends' church, Rev. Joseph Thompson, pastor of the Wintersburg Methodist church, sermon topic, "Christ's Loyalty to His Father's House."

Tuesday evening, Westminster Presbyterian church, Rev. Charles McCabe of the Garden Grove Free Methodist church, subject "We Would See Jesus."

Wednesday, Free Methodist church at Garden Grove; Rev. George N. Greer of Westminster Presbyterian church, subject "Jesus and the Home."

Thursday evening, First Methodist church at Garden Grove, Rev. W. H. H. of the First Baptist church of Garden Grove; subject "The Last Supper." The communion service will follow the sermon with the Rev. Charles Seidler, of the Methodist church, presiding.

Friday evening, First Baptist church, Garden Grove; Rev. Chas. T. Moore, of Alamitos Friends' church, subject "The World's Night of Deepest Gloom."

The closing sermon of the series will be the Easter Sunrise service at 5:15 a. m., Sunday morning at the First Methodist church at Garden Grove with the Rev. Clifford N. Jones of the Midway City Community church taking as his subject "Dawn." Appropriate music and Easter features will be included in the program.

Kiwanis Will Hear Talk On Money Rates

Gustav Reidlin, assistant vice-president of the Internal Banking Department, Bank of America, at the Los Angeles main office, will be the chief speaker at the regular luncheon session of the Santa Ana Kiwanis Club Wednesday noon in the Masonic Temple.

This was the announcement this morning of R. B. Newcom, president of the organization, and J. P. Baumgartner, program chairman for the day.

"Reidlin has had a great deal of experience in international banking," Baumgartner said, "and is an authority on world monetary conditions and will have first-hand information on inflation."

A solo by Stanley Kurtz will be among the musical features of the general program.

THORNGHEARS REV. ERDMAN

First Presbyterian church was filled to capacity yesterday for the morning service when the Rev. Charles R. Erdman, D. D., former moderator of the Presbyterian church in the United States, was the speaker.

Choosing as his sermon topic "Illuminated Memories," Dr. Erdman stressed the value of retaining the beautiful things of life that will provide "illuminated" memories.

"Memories," he said, "can be beautiful and helpful. It is well for us to keep in the storehouse of our experience the things that will provide these beautiful memories."

Nationally known because of the wide scope of his activities as a churchman, Dr. Erdman now is president of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, the organization that controls all Presbyterian church work outside of America.

All four choirs of the church combined yesterday in presenting a Palm Sunday musical program, under direction of Whitford Hall, minister of music for the church.

The Junior and Junior High choirs combined in singing Faure's "The Palmes," while the Young People's and Adult choirs combined in the Palm Sunday anthem "Jerusalem."

SCHOOL BOARD AT S. B. BUYS FIVE LOTS

SEAL BEACH, March 22.—Enlargement of the block of property on which the Seal Beach elementary school buildings and playground are located between Eleventh and Twelfth street south of Coast highway, toward a total area of 137,500 square feet got under way here today when purchase agreements covering five additional lots were executed, according to district superintendent J. H. McGaugh. Purchase of the additional property was authorized by the board of trustees at their regular March meeting to provide space for track and field grounds previously located where the Wightman auto court is now under construction.

Included in the deal are two and one-half lots held by the Security First National Bank of Los Angeles, one and a half lots held by N. Ledgerwood of Pasadena, all facing on Eleventh street, and a single lot belonging to Miss Nellie Mayes facing on Twelfth street. One lot needed to make the tract complete may be acquired by condemnation proceedings, members of the school board say.

By acquiring the new property the school grounds will have a 250-foot frontage on Coast highway and 550-foot frontage on both Eleventh and Twelfth street, in addition to the property across Eleventh street on which the tennis courts are located.

G. G. Students Enjoy Picnic

GARDEN GROVE, March 22.—Twenty-six boys and girls in Miss Faure Virgin's room at the Washington school enjoyed an afternoon of games and picnic supper at Anaheim park recently.

As a feature of the supper, three large birthday cakes decorated in green and topped with tiny green candles were served in celebration of the birthday anniversary of Leon Perkins, a member of the class. Around the table the remainder of the class, as a surprise to Leon, gave a number of original poems and songs.

Miss Virgin and Miss Sherman, teachers of the school, were accompanied by six mothers who furnished transportation. Mesdames W. W. Perkins, Wilbur Harper, Wesley Lamb, Clark, Young and Moore.

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN IN RACE IN WATER AREA IN LIQUOR FEES

Considerable local interest is being manifested in the general water district election to be held in Laguna Beach tomorrow.

For the five directorships on the water board, six candidates are listed: C. C. Cravath, police judge and justice of the peace; Thomas A. Cummings, city councilman; Joseph R. Jahraus, mill-owner; Brayton S. Norton, former postmaster and present realtor; George Wilson, former councilman; and William Ajax Wolf, director of the Federal Savings and Loan society.

Of the six listed, the first four are incumbent members of the water board, seeking re-election; the fifth incumbent, former Mayor Frank B. Champion, withdrew his name from consideration, and resigned from the board, some weeks ago.

In addition to the six names listed on the ballot, three other candidates filed petitions, but owing to a ruling that their nominations were filed too late, their names were excluded from the ballot.

Considerable "writing-in" is anticipated at tomorrow's election, for which the usual polling places will be available.

Irish Stew Is Served Class

COSTA MESA, March 22.—Over 50 persons were present when the Friendly class of the Community Church school and their families gathered in the social hall of the church recently in a St. Patrick's Day party. The early portion of the evening was occupied by a dinner of which the chief dish was Irish stew. Following the dinner games were participated in by all and the Irish melodies, "Mother McRee," "My Wild Irish Rose" and others were sung. Mrs. Elmer Clark was at the piano. Dr. Virgil E. Turner spoke briefly.

The dinner preparation and the program was in charge of the men of the organization. C. C. Otto and Ward H. Pilley arranged the entertainment and E. A. Rea, Doug R. Ward and S. L. Kanagy planned the dinner. Professor Rea is teacher of the class.

Iowa Residents To Hold Picnic

Former residents of Burlington, Ia. will hold their picnic Sunday, April 4, in Bixby Park, Long Beach. All former residents of the Iowa city are asked to meet at the bandstand at noon on that day and to bring with them one covered dish, sandwiches and table service. Coffee will be served. According to the announcement if rain prevents holding the picnic on the date set it will be held the following Sunday.

Santa Ana will receive $4511.50 and Orange county as a whole gets $23,368.58 as their respective shares of the nearly $3,000,000 to be allocated by the state to cities and unincorporated areas in the various counties, representing half of total liquor license fees collected by the state during 1936.

Total liquor license fees were reported as $5,921,412.22, of which $2,958,009.26 is allocated to the counties and cities, in proportion to the amounts collected from such areas. The state's half goes into the general fund of the state.

Other Cities Listed

In Orange county, $15,233.88 was collected in the unincorporated area, and $7609.69 is allocated there.

Among the cities, Santa Ana has the largest liquor license business and Tustin the least; $9017.50 was collected and $4511.50 allocated in Santa Ana, and $323.75 collected and $161.88 allocated in Tustin. Anaheim and Newport Beach ran Santa Ana a close second and third in the statistics. Other beach cities were well near the top, while the interior cities, excepting Anaheim, had fewer liquor licenses.

The collections and allocations were as follows:

Unincorporated area	Collected	Allocated
Santa Ana	$15,233.88	$7609.69
Anaheim	9,017.50	4511.50
Newport Beach	7,613.44	3845.72
Laguna Beach	4,796.07	2398.04
Seal Beach	3,465.00	1732.50
Huntington	2,758.88	1384.44
Orange	2,316.25	1158.13
Fullerton	2,097.24	1048.62
San Clemente	1,557.50	783.75
Brea	907.50	453.75
Placentia	622.51	311.25
La Habra	525.00	262.50
Tustin	323.75	161.88

Christian Science

"Matter" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon on Sunday in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston Massachusetts.

The Golden Text was from Isaiah: "I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you; therefore are my witnesses, said the Lord, that I am God."

The Lesson-Sermon included these Bible verses from Paul's first epistle to the Corinthians: "Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the Moses in the cloud and in the sea; and were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; and did all eat the same spiritual meat; and did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and the Rock was Christ."

Among the passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, were these words: "The Scriptures say, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God,' showing that Truth is the actual life of man; but mankind objects to making this teaching practical."

General HUGH S. JOHNSON

WASHINGTON, D. C.—For once this column is in agreement with the Brookings Institution; the New York Herald-Tribune and Henry Wallace—a rapid upward spiral of prices of essential commodities is well along its way. It is one of the most dangerous and disquieting symptoms in the ailing economic body of the world.

In all these commodity price booms it is almost invariable history that wages lag far behind the prices. The only exception I know was the summer of 1933, when the president's reemployment agreement artificially kept advancing wages abreast of advancing prices. But whether wages lag or not, it is a certainty that all fixed incomes—interest, pensions, salaries, rates for freight and public service and the like—do not rise at all, or rise very slowly.

The result of all these lags is that the buying power of the greater part of the population is decreased in almost the same proportion as prices increase. One of two things happens or both things in part: (1) millions of people suffer deprivation; (2) consumption slows up, jobs are lost, and finally this dislocation and inability to consume of itself results in a buyer's strike and a new collapse of prices.

This interplay of prices and wages when the changes are natural, slow and moderate is a kind of balance that keeps the whole economic structure on an even keel. But when, due to some outside, or novel, or artificial influence prices continue to sky-rocket, regardless of the reduced buying power of the stationary income of the people, then the real suffering and deprivation comes and real political trouble threatens.

There is little normal or natural about many of these price increases. In the metals, steel, tin, copper, lead and zinc, they are unquestionably almost entirely due to preparations for war in Europe on a scale so massive that they could hardly be more effective if there were an actual war of vast proportions.

Buying and counter-bidding resulting in rocketing prices is very active, not only for these metals for immediate conversion into munitions, but also for storage and reserve by governments, and perhaps even more effectively by private individuals who fear that money is soon to become worthless and who would rather have their fortunes in these non-deteriorable and easily stored products.

This is certainly a dangerous situation. Stored products in such great quantities are not permanently hanging over it. If peace were rendered more secure they would crash down and destroy it. War alone could make that speculation successful and save an early crash in the price structure. War would rocket these prices much higher, but the crash would come just the same at the end, and the higher prices go the worse the crash.

Furthermore, this is the true and veritable inflation so long feared. Bank credit expansion is not inflation. Paper money is not inflation. They may cause inflation but they are not in themselves inflation. Inflation is just one thing—rapidly rising prices far in advance of any economic justification—and this is it. The only question is how far it will go.

If it becomes a buyer's panic and goes to fantastic figures it could make a new boom and bust like 1929. If it can be controlled before it is too late, it might be only a major recession. Of one thing we can be certain, "what goes up must come down"—sooner or later these eggs of trouble will hatch. We are almost as helpless against this war-boom as in 1917. Just now, we have no labor policy, no industrial policy, no economic policy, no fiscal policy to control it.

Camel smokers enjoy smoking to the full. It's Camels for a "lift" in energy. It's Camels "for digestion's sake." Thanks to Camels, the flow of digestive fluids—alkaline digestive fluids—speeds up. A sense of well-being follows. And Camels don't get on your nerves.

WEALTH TO BE DISCUSSED AT FORUM SESSION

R. B. Newcom, program chairman this week on the Forum for Political and Economic Education, at the junior college building, announced today that the debate subject will be, "Resolved, that the Production of Wealth by Any Individual in No Way Prevents Another Individual, with Like Expenditure of Human Energy, from Producing Wealth."

The debate, with Lew Betts taking the affirmative, and Charles Ruby, Fullerton junior college teacher, the negative, will be held tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

Until the federal forum started in Orange county, Ruby directed the regular public forum in Fullerton for eight years. He is well-known in that city for his leadership in connection with forums. Betts, Tustin rancher, is a thorough student of economics. "This subject is one which could be classified in one of the great groups of problems which automatically would correct themselves if a critical, analytical study were made of them," Newcom said. "That is, it belongs to that class wherein, if thinking is along logical and correct lines, the problems solve themselves."

"It is of utmost importance that these problems be understood," he continued. "It is of utmost importance if we are to have higher standards of living which we desire and are entitled to. Public opinion must permit establishment of proper laws and social relationships if we are to gain that standard of living."

The public is invited, free, to attend the debate and to take part in the discussion.

SANTA ANA COUPLE ATTEND CONCLAVE AT PALM SPRINGS

Huntington Beach was represented this week end at the first annual Trailer Coach Manufacturers Association convention at Palm Springs by Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hynes of Santa Ana.

Prior to joining a large caravan of the motor drawn "houses on wheels," Mr. and Mrs. Hynes' trailer was decorated with banners publicizing the Pacific Coast Tourist Traller convention scheduled for Huntington Beach May 28 to June 6. Enroute to Long Beach, the Hynes trailer, "Tagalong," was escorted by police. In Long Beach, the couple was interviewed by newspaper men.

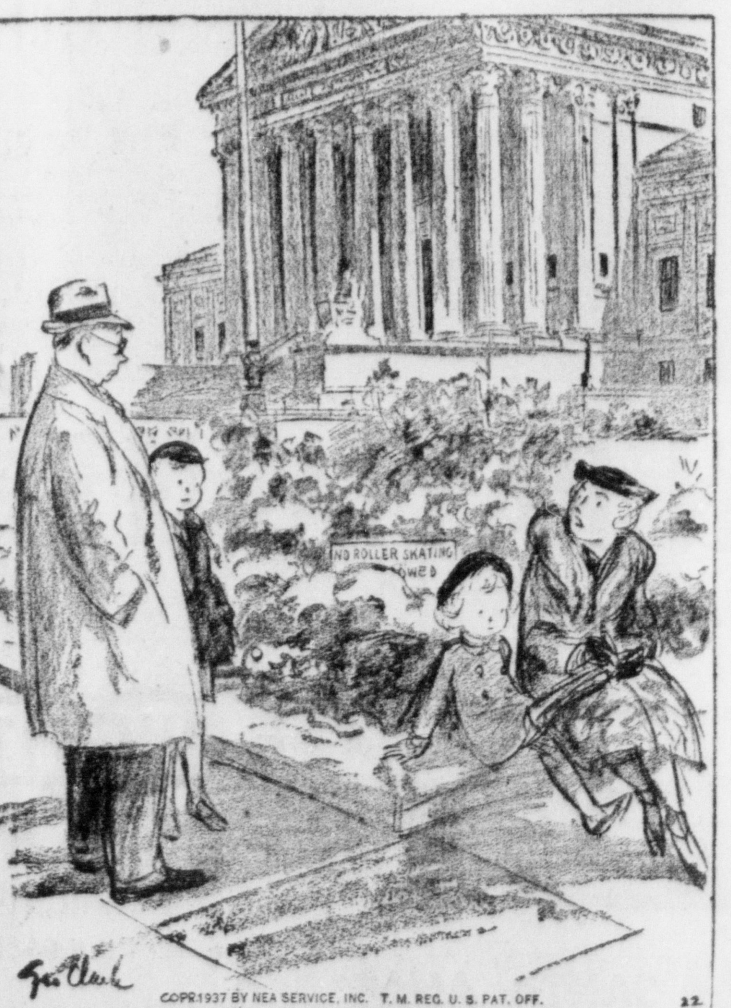

The main caravan of trailers was joined in Los Angeles, and under the escort of state highway patrolmen, left for Palm Springs. Along the route, the caravan was the subject of news reel photographers' cameras. At Palm Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Hynes were greeted by W. H. Galliene, secretary of the Huntington Beach chamber of commerce, who attended the conclave to extend invitations to the Huntington Beach convention.

Home Group Plans Tuesday Meeting

"The Basic Dress and Accessories" is the subject of the discussion that will be held by members of the Cypress, Magnolia-Buena Park Home Department at a meeting at 10 a. m. Tuesday in Centralia school. Mrs. Lester Schofield, chairman of the organization, announced this morning.

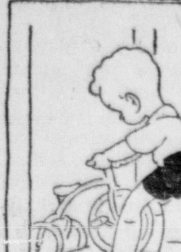

Members are asked to bring needle, thread and scissors to make samples and cut patterns. There will be a pot-luck luncheon at noon, with Mrs. C. M. Shear as hostess.

OF F. W. SET FOR NEW DRIVE AFFECTED BY UNION BATTLE

Members of Ernest F. Kellogg post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, launched a safety campaign Friday night when they met in Knights of Columbus hall.

George Hubbard was named chairman of the safety committee which, as a part of a nation-wide movement instituted by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, will cooperate with police and other authorities in obtaining greater safety on the highways and in homes.

Glenn Hendrickson was named chairman of the Poppy day committee in charge of arrangements for the annual sale of the flowers.

Completion of plans for the pot-luck dinner to be sponsored by the post next Friday, was announced.

All veterans and their families are invited to attend the affair.

Following the dinner the first aid team of the Santa Ana police department will give a demonstration. Dancing and cards will follow.

LEGION PLANS OLD-FIELD FETE

Presented through courtesy of the American Legion and Chrysler division of General Motors, Barney Oldfield, famous driver of racing cars will be in Santa Ana Wednesday.

Oldfield is brought to this city by the Santa Ana post of the American Legion as a part of the national highway safety campaign sponsored by the organization.

A detachment of motorcycle police will meet Oldfield at the Eddie Martin airport and escort him into the city. At noon he will be taken on a tour of the county by Cy Featherly, commander of the Santa Ana Legion post. At 8 o'clock Wednesday night, Oldfield will speak at a public meeting to be held in the American Legion hall. All veterans, regardless of their affiliations, and the general public are invited to attend the meeting.

In honor of Oldfield's visit to Santa Ana and recognition of Legion participation in the safety campaign launched by Santa Ana police, Mayor Fred C. Rowland, today issued a proclamation declaring Wednesday, March 24, "Traffic Safety Day."

FAMOUS CANTATA IS PRESENTED AT PALM SUNDAY OBSERVANCE

A large and appreciative audience filled the First M. E. church of Santa Ana at 5:30 Vespers yesterday afternoon when First Methodist church choir presented Sir John Stainer's famed cantata "The Crucifixion." The cantata was given an inspirational rendition under the able direction of Halstead McCormack, director of music at the church, and conductor of Cecilia Singers of Santa Ana.

The choir, whose membership has increased greatly during the past year, reached great heights in the final chorus, "From the Throne" and gave a beautiful reading of the unaccompanied "God So Loved the World." The events of Jesus' life from the Garden of Gethsemane were vividly depicted in recitative solo and chorus.

Marquise Hare and Donald Krueger furnished the programs highlighted with their perfectly blended work in the tenor and baritone duet, "Thou Liftest Thy Divine Petition."

Wallace Le Gras, choir director at the Episcopal Church of the Messiah, was exceptionally pleasing in his rendition of the baritone solos representing the words of Christ. The work of Gustav Koehler, popular local tenor, was greatly enjoyed, as always. H. P. Kenny and C. L. Anderson sang incidental bass solos, both possessing voice of unusual depth. Mrs. Christine Lambert did efficient work at the console of the Murray Harris organ, giving ample support to the singers and artistically handled the important organ interludes.

The choir is now entering final preparation for the Easter concert to be presented in conjunction with Cecilia Singers at 5:30 Easter Sunday afternoon. An antiphonal quartet, the choir of the Junior church and a double quartet of soloists will assist.

Arrested by immigration authorities, Nicholas Jimenez, 48; Eliseo Garcia, 22, and Enrique Mendoza, 20, all of Mexico, were jailed here Saturday night to begin serving terms. Jimenez and Mendoza will serve two months, Garcia, six months.

Robert McLean, 45, San Francisco, was jailed by city police yesterday and charged with vagrancy.

Charles G. Wolfe, 52, Palo Alto, was jailed Saturday night by Orange police on a charge he failed to support his minor children.

An automobile reported stolen from W. O. Patterson, 922 French, last Friday, while it was parked at 120 West Fifth, was found abandoned in Westminster, Saturday evening, city police report.

Youthful prowlers tried to enter the L. P. Durst home, 1709 North Flower, early yesterday morning. Durst told city police. An investigation is under way today to determine identity of the pair.

Employees of the street department were called by police Saturday night, after a local citizen reports that intoxicated persons had broken empty bottles in the highway.

COUNTY TO BE AFFECTED BY UNION BATTLE

California and particularly Orange county loomed today as the potential battleground for another union organization fight following refusal of the State Federation of Labor executive board to grant charter for a huge union embracing all agricultural and cannery workers.

Citrus pickers of Orange county, anxious to organize, sent Joe Ortiz to the conference as their representative. The conference, it was said, was called to amend the organization's constitution to permit granting of charters to foreign-born workers.

Fight Is Forecast

Observers of the agricultural labor situation in Orange county said today that the action of the State Federation of Labor undoubtedly presaged a battle between John L. Lewis' Committee for Industrial Organization and the American Federation of Labor.

"The CIO has been busy in the east with the automobile situation," one observer said, "and has not had time to turn its attention toward California and the agricultural situation. But a move to organize this multi-million dollar industry is inevitable. Probably it will come this year."

Turning down the petition of a group which sought such an agricultural organization, the board agreed to petition the American Federation of Labor for a state charter for a union covering agricultural workers, fresh and dried fruit packers and nut packers.

Already organized

Edward C. Vandenberg, state secretary, said the executive board decided against the petition because many cannery and packer unions already are organized and have working contracts and agreements with employers. As soon as the national organization grants the charter, he said, all existing agricultural unions will be asked to surrender their federal charters.

Walter Cowan, of San Francisco, vice president of the state federation, was appointed temporary chairman of the new organization drive and will hold the post until the charter is granted and officers elected.

A statement made by George Woolf, president of the Alaska Cannery Workers' union, before the board decision was announced indicated a bitter fight may be impending, involving the same principles concerned in the A. F. of L.-CIO battle which has spread over the nation.

Dr. Foster Will Speak Tonight At Meeting of Forum

Under leadership and direction of William T. Foster, the Orange County Federal forum will meet tonight at the Santa Ana high school auditorium. Foster will speak on "Can Consumers Stand the Truth?" Dr. Foster, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights will be in charge of forum meetings at Anaheim, San Juan Capistrano and Garden Grove, respectively, when the same subject will be discussed.

Dr. Walter H. Brown, professor of hygiene, Stanford university, will appear at Huntington Beach Memorial hall tomorrow evening and at Buena Park, Friday evening.

Dr. Hubert Phillips, former director of the Maxima public forum in the east, tonight will speak on "Soviet Russia Goes Conservative," at Laguna Beach. He will present the same talk tomorrow at Orange; Wednesday at Newport Beach, and Thursday at Fullerton. All meetings, at the high schools of district cities where not otherwise specified, begin at 7:30 p. m.

100 Men Started On WPA Projects In County Today

Approximately 100 men, or almost 50 per cent of the 226 additional workers authorized for WPA projects in Orange county, went to work this morning, according to Don Mulherson, manager of the local WPA office. The balance of the increased quota will be put on jobs as soon as the necessary work orders can be issued, he said.

Several days ago WPA administration offices for the San Diego-Orange county district authorized an increased quota for projects in this county, bringing the number of men working on federal jobs here to 1716. Formerly 1444 men were employed.

Arrested by immigration authorities, Nicholas Jimenez, 48; Eliseo Garcia, 22, and Enrique Mendoza, 20, all of Mexico, were jailed here Saturday night to begin serving terms. Jimenez and Mendoza will serve two months, Garcia, six months.

Robert McLean, 45, San Francisco, was jailed by city police yesterday and charged with vagrancy.

An automobile reported stolen from W. O. Patterson, 922 French, last Friday, while it was parked at 120 West Fifth, was found abandoned in Westminster, Saturday evening, city police report.

GARDEN SUES JIM BRADDOCK

MIAMI, Fla., March 22.—(UP)—Francis M. Miller, attorney for Madison Square Garden of New York, filed suit in circuit court today for an injunction to prevent James J. Braddock, world's heavyweight champion, from fighting Joe Louis in Chicago June 22.

The suit was filed as Braddock prepared to leave Miami for New York and Wisconsin to begin training for the fight.

It came while Joe Gould, Braddock's manager, was considering an offer by Deutchlandhalle to guarantee the champion $350,000 free of tax to fight Max Baer in Berlin in June. In order to accept the offer, Braddock would have to abandon his fight with Louis.

The suit, Miller said, alleges that the garden will suffer "irreversible damage" unless Braddock is prevented from going through with the Louis battle. The action contends that Braddock cannot fight Louis and fill a previously arranged fight with Schmeling, a garden promotion scheduled for June 3.

HER NAME IN LIGHTS

By MARIE BLIZARD. © 1937, NEA Service, Inc.

BEGIN HERE TODAY. DAPHNE BRETT loved LARRY SMITH, architect. But Daphne had refused to marry Larry until she had accumulated sufficient money to launch JENNIFER, her younger sister, on a career.

Jennifer had proved the selfish sister from the start, defying Daphne at every turn. Finally Jennifer meets GORDON HERZBERG, theater producer, and apparently finds her work.

Then Daphne is sent on a two-months sales trip. Before she leaves Larry again asks her to marry him. But again she refuses, without telling him why. So Larry says goodby, assuming Daphne prefers a career to his love. The final blow comes when Daphne, returning, finds Jennifer dating Larry!

So Daphne decides to play the game herself. She arranges a gorgeous party at the Club Flamingo, inviting Larry, Herzberg, and others. Larry is happy to see Daphne, who proves exceedingly attractive in her new gown. But Daphne is wily and gives careful attention to Herzberg, finally inviting him to have tea with her following Sunday. Larry is puzzled.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXIII. DAPHNE blinked under his eyes were open and cuddled deeper under the covers. She felt numb with lack of enough sleep. "What time is it?" she asked sleepily.

Jennifer threw a comb, brush and silver slipper into her overnight case. "Almost 11," she said. "My train leaves at noon and I haven't had any breakfast. Do you mind fixing some coffee and toast?"

Daphne stretched, sighed and threw back the covers. Her feet fumbled and found her slippers. She got into a warm robe. "It must have been 6 when we left the Hammers. Where did you go?"

"Larry said he had to get the 3 o'clock train so Douglas and I went to the station with him. Then we went to Childs for some food. Will you try and hurry that, Daph?"

Daphne tucked her hair under her hat, remarked, "It was all right for you. What were you and Herzberg chatting so cozily over?"

"Wahh! . . ." Daphne yawned. "This is no time to ask me. I'm too sleepy to remember. What time are you getting back tomorrow?"

"I'm not returning until Monday. I'm driving back with Grace. Daphne, last night did you talk to Herzberg about my getting the part of Louise?"

"Louise?"

GROWERS TELL KUCHEL OF NEW PLAN ON NAVELS

After making special recommendations, the Orange county Farm bureau was unanimous in supporting Representative Thomas Kuchel's bill to make a slight change in the California navel orange standardization laws, of officials announced today.

This change would prove beneficial to citrus growers of this area as it would take into consideration climatic and other growing conditions prevailing during the winter and spring months, they said.

Would Prevent Friction

Robert D. Flaherty, executive secretary of the bureau, pointed out in a letter to Representative Kuchel that there is considerable territory in Orange county where navel oranges are grown. This fruit will not reach the eight-to-one test.

There also is considerable acreage where the fruit will not reach the eight-to-one test until its quality in other respects has deteriorated to such a degree that it cannot be marketed as first class fruit.

Such conditions that prevail in Orange county are also true of parts of Los Angeles and Ventura counties.

The provision would also prevent friction between growers and marketing agencies and would not necessitate the confiscation of certain crops which do not meet the eight-to-one law.

Change Is Cited

In the opinion of the Farm Bureau's citrus department, navel oranges reaching a seven-and-a-half to one test by January 15, will comply with the purposes of the Standardization Act and would eliminate the conflicting situation between the Agricultural Commissioner's office and packing houses over the packing and grading of Orange county's 1400 acres of navel oranges resulting from the marketing of 60,000 acres of Valencia.

The Orange county Farm Bureau has already communicated with Representative Kuchel regarding this measure together with its recommendations.

The proposed amendment to Section 796, Chapter 2, Division 5 of the Agricultural code would include the following:

"Provided, however, that in view of climatic and other growing conditions prevailing during the late winter and spring months, navel oranges shall be considered mature after January 15th of each year if the juice contains soluble solids determined by the Brix scale hydrometer equal to or in excess of seven and one half parts to each part of the acids in the juice."

The remainder of the provision would remain the same as it now stands.

Only six per cent of the drivers involved in fatal accidents are female.

CHIEF PRAISES COOPERATION IN PICTURE SERIES

Chief of Police Floyd W. Howard today extended congratulations to Lester J. Fountain, manager of the Fox-West Coast theaters here on the showing of "Torture Money," one of the "Crime Does Not Pay" series of pictures released through Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

The picture is showing today at the Broadway theater.

In his letter to Fountain, Chief Howard said:

"Allow me to congratulate you on your selection of the latest subject, 'Torture Money.'"

"Directed and produced as it has been in a most vivid and impressive manner, this picture without a doubt performs a most worthy service of enlightening the public of the various vicious organized crime rackets throughout the United States which result in the cost of untold millions to the American people each year.

"There is no doubt that the youth will benefit by the impression they will receive from this picture and will reap a lifelong benefit by seeing them."

"This picture, in a laudable and impressive manner, exposes the newest menace now prevalent in the United States. In addition to being an informative subject, it is highly interesting and I sincerely recommend it to the citizens of Santa Ana."

Rites Held For Charles Argast

CYPRESS, March 22—Funeral services for Charles Argast, resident of Cypress district for the past 35 years were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Backs, Terry and Campbell funeral parlors in Anaheim. The Rev. V. B. Wheeler, pastor of the Cypress Nazarene church read the burial service. Interment was in Olive Lawn cemetery.

The deceased, who was 80 years of age, was a native of Germany. He had resided in California for more than 50 years. There are no known survivors.

CALLING all DOGS

By Albert Payson Terhune

TROLLEY OR KENNEL YARD

In ancient Roman houses, the slave who guarded the doorway was chained to a gatepost and was kept fettered as long as he lived. Was this much more cruel than to chain a dog to a kennel and to keep him there all or most of the time? This is bad for any dog. A chicken-wire yard with the kennel in one corner is infinitely better for him. If you don't think such a yard will add to the looks of your grounds, then do the next best thing for him by rigging up a trolley.

This consists of a stout wire—the longer the better—stretched at a height of at least five feet above the ground, and fastened at each end to some wall or tree or post. A large metal ring is strung around the wire in such a way as to have full play for running freely from one end of the trolley to the other. The dog's ten-or-twelve-foot chain is attached to the ring. Thus he can move with ease for the full distance of the wire, and as far to either side of it as his chain's length will permit. Make certain there shall be no chance for the chain to get caught or tangled in anything. Use a harness, rather than a collar for the dog, when he is attached to the trolley; to avert the chance of his hanging himself. Have his kennel house within easy reach.

DO IT WITH MIRRORS? WELL, C. OF C. GIVES ENLIGHTENMENT

By PAUL VISSMAN

Maybe they do it with mirrors! Anyway, residents of eastern cities have been given the impression that Southern California is a waste of black soot and withered flowers because of the recent freeze.

Howard I. Wood, secretary of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, this morning received a letter from Wylis Van Metre, of Columbus, O., requesting information on the extent of damage done by smudging during the freeze.

In his letter, Van Metre said many eastern people are going to Florida this year because of reports that houses, drapes, furnishings and flowers all had been seriously damaged by smudge smoke, and would Wood please give him authentic information. He also said that eastern people had been told that California's wild flowers had been killed by the cold weather.

In his reply, Wood today outlined the true situation, informing the Ohio man that while there had been some inconvenience caused by the smudge smoke no homes, furnishings or flowers had been damaged and that because of the recent rains California this year is expecting the greatest display of wild flowers that has been seen in many years.

Commenting on the tourist situation, Wood said that according to statistics recently completed by the All-Year Club of Southern California, this year is experiencing the greatest increase in tourist traffic since 1929. These statistics reveal that not only are there more tourists this year but the increase is among the wealthier group coming here with the idea of spending considerable time in the southland.

"Score" Now Even In Theft of Bikes

Two bicycles were reported stolen and two recovered, during the week-end, city police said today.

Benny and Gregg Juarez, 841 East Washington, Santa Ana, said their bicycles were taken Saturday night from Fourth and Birch streets. E. C. Witt, 210 South Main, reported finding a bicycle near his home; officers impounded the bicycle for safe keeping. A bicycle belonging to Francis Shoen, Long Beach, was found abandoned on the walk at 318 North Birch, and returned to its owner.

PASTOR WARNS LIBERAL TREND SHOULD CEASE

"Great sections of American protestants are honeycombed with the denial of the fundamental doctrine of Christianity—the deity of Jesus Christ," Dr. Walter A. Maier declared yesterday in his weekly Lutheran Hour broadcast over a coast-to-coast network.

"Canvass the clergymen of any of our larger cities and you will find an astonishing proportion that denies this truth or refuses to commit themselves to the Biblical doctrine of Christ's divinity and His atoning death."

Asks Determination
"If this denial increases in the same proportion that has marked its growth since the beginning of the century, it will not be long before only a numerically insignificant minority within some of our larger denominations will hold to these pillars of truth of Christian faith. Before it is too late and liberalism seizes control of these American pulpits, there should be a determined counter-movement on the part of our conservative Christian groups instead of efforts to unite in one church body.

"Scriptural minded Christians should consider ways and means of breaking away from denominational connections where the deity of Christ and His sacrificial redemption are discarded or denied. History shows that the longer orthodox Christians remain affiliated with Christ-denying groups, the weaker and less effective their protest becomes. The time has come for new alignment of Christian forces in America."

New Pastor Is Honored at S. B.

SEAL BEACH, March 22—Formal welcoming ceremonies honoring the Rev. and Mrs. Oscar Newby, newly assigned to the pastorate of Seal Beach Community Methodist church, were combined in a dinner and reception at the church auditorium here this week-end, attended by 70 persons. Arrangements were in charge of the Woman's Aid, with Mrs. Carrie Lou Southerland of Anaheim, choir director in charge of the program. Plans for the dinner were in charge of Mrs. J. H. McLaugh, Mrs. James Prentice and Mrs. V. B. Fether.

Reminiscences of his experience in his previous pastorate, Harris Memorial Japanese church in Honolulu, were outlined by Mr. Newby.

Mrs. Edward Dvorak, chairman, has arranged a varied program of "travel," in the course of which Mrs. Amy Wallace will speak on "French Art in the Louvre." Mrs. Spencer Miller will give her recollections of James Abbott McNeill Whistler, great American artist, under whose aegis Mrs. Miller studied in Paris.

Mrs. Dvorak will close the program with "Paris, Old and New," another chapter from her extensive itinerary of world-travel. Refreshments will be served; and musical selections will be rendered during the afternoon. The club house will be appropriately decorated in spring flowers.

CLEAVER FILES SUIT ANSWER

A. W. Cleaver, Fullerton laundryman, has filed answer in superior court to the $3427.16 suit brought against him by the Aetna Casualty and Surety Company, which was forced to pay a damage judgment against Cleaver a second time, after the first payment had gone astray.

Instead of paying the surety company $3427.16, Cleaver holds that the surety company should pay him that amount, and his answer asks judgment for the sum.

The first damage award of $2556 had been paid in 1931 to attorneys for a Mexican youth who had been injured by one of Cleaver's laundry trucks. The check never reached the boy. Subsequently, when he came to court again to collect, the court ruled that there had been no satisfaction of judgment, so it was necessary to pay the award again. By that time, including interest, it had increased to $3427.16.

The surety company paid it, then sued Cleaver for the sum. In his answer, Cleaver contends the surety company had full knowledge of the first payment, and should have taken legal steps to protect itself and Cleaver.

PROGRAMS FOR
AVOCADO AREA
ARE REVEALED

A busy and exceedingly interesting list of events will occupy avocado growers of this and other districts during the early part of May, it was announced today by Giles Hart, of the California Avocado association, the industry's "Present and Future Care of cultural society. The events will take place at Whittier this year. Frost-Injured Avocado Trees" will be the sole topic of various talks to be held by authorities Friday evening, May 7. Saturday morning's program includes addresses on "How Frosts are Caused and Predicted," "Effect of the Recent Freeze on the Packing and Marketing of Avocados," "Orchard Heating," and either a report on the investigations being conducted on tree and fruit damage, if completed by then, or one on fruit standardization.

Hodgson to Talk
Saturday afternoon will be devoted to grower discussions and questions-and-answers, always of intense interest.

Featuring the annual industry dinner program this year will be Prof. R. W. Hodgson of UCLA, who has just returned from a six months' stay in India. He will describe, with slides, his observations of various fruits in India and Egypt. Ann Martin, home economist of the Los Angeles Bureau of Light and Power, will present an interesting short talk entitled "The Modern Trend of Foods."

From May 10-15 inclusive, the annual California Avocado Show holds forth as a part of Whittier's Fifth Anniversary Celebration. Avocado growers are urged to save three fruits of as many varieties as possible for this large exhibition.

START WORK ON NEW PIPE LINE

New pipe line material was hauled today from city yards to Birch street between Sixth and Tenth streets, where water main installation is to begin soon. Following completion of the Birch street job, a similar project will be launched on Ross street between the same intersections. The pipe is to replace 40-year-old lines.

In each case, the distance to be covered is 1440 feet. The Ross street job to cost $2300, the Birch street job, $2654. Twenty-seven copper service connections to mains will be made on Birch street and 35 on Ross, with fire hydrants to be installed at Eighth and Birch and Tenth and Birch. The pipe size is to be increased from two inches to six inches.

The city has just completed relaying of water main on Broadway between Tenth and Washington, four-inch pipe being replaced by 12-inch pipe. That job cost $2817.

GLAD SHOUTS HERALD CIRCUS ARRIVAL

Remember—it's the elephants that never forget! And you won't forget them, either, once you gaze upon the stupendous array of the heavy-trunked pachyderms which go for peanuts "like mad"—and h ow!

Below you get just a small vista of what is in store for this afternoon and tonight—at the 8 p. m. performance—for thousands of children and grownups in Santa Ana and Orange county. It's here! And it's a real show, giving the public more than it's money's worth!

IT'S HERE!—THE CIRCUS, AND IS PACKED WITH FUN, THRILLS

"It's here!"
Scuttling, shiny-eyed youngsters, half hitching their trousers as they madly sprinted through the early sunup hours, shouted the two magical words. Into the dawning hours, and the homes of many sound sleepers, the cry rang. To disturbed parents the phrase meant little. To hundreds of tousled headed young Americans in Santa Ana, no further explanation was needed.

"It's here!" In case you don't know it, this means Circus Day is here! The day of days in the heart of every young person, not to mention young mothers and young dads.

Packed With Wonders
And so this morning, very early, when the slow chugging engines grunted to a stop in the Santa Fe yards behind strings of bright yellow and vivid gold cars, many little hearts, unable any longer to contain themselves, let out a whoop, the envy of any cheer leader. Wonders, the whoopers knew, were packed tighter than sardines in a can, on the long steel trains. Wonders, howling, growling, screaming and trumpeting, in fact 800 furred and feathered creatures that make up the giant menagerie of the Al G. Barnes and Sells Floto combined circus, which today is visiting Santa Ana at South Main street and Pomona avenue, were telling their welcome to the city.
Down the runways came canvas covered wagons, concealing no telling what. For this season these two giants of the tented world have united to form an amusement colossus.

And he was without a doubt!... and here he comes back again this year getting dressed up as economically as he did last year!

THE BOYS' STORE—FOURTH AT BROADWAYJeffs' Case Will Be Heard Soon In
Los Angeles Court

Case of Jack Jeffs, accused by the state of driving his car when his license was suspended, will come up in court soon in Los Angeles, local authorities learned today.

Jeffs, police said, was at the wheel of the car in the crash which cost the life of his mother, Mrs. Anna Louise Jeffs, 62, of Los Angeles. The accident recently was declared accidental by a coroner's jury at the Divel funeral chapel in San Clemente.

Jeffs had testified he lost control of the car after striking the rear of another auto on the Coast highway near Dana Point.

MWD AQUEDUCT
LINK IS DONE

The last cubic yard of concrete was "shot" through a specially designed gun into the Pasadena tunnel construction of the Metropolitan aqueduct yesterday, according to a report received today from the office of F. E. Weymouth, general manager of the MWD.

Three and a third miles long, this tunnel is a part of the distributing system of the MWD, and runs from east to west under downtown Pasadena. Located at an average depth of 60 feet below the surface of Mountain street in Pasadena, the tunnel has been under construction since February 21, 1935.

Out of sight and sound of the surface residents, these operations have progressed for more than two years, unnoticed. The Pasadena tunnel will be the first construction feature of the 352-mile aqueduct to be completed within the limits of one of the cities in the water district. Its circular concrete walls are 10 feet in diameter, and, in addition, to having a concrete thickness of 16 inches, they are heavily reinforced with steel. The tunnel will eventually carry 350 million gallons of water daily.

Each verse below contains the name of a BIRD with the letters in proper consecutive order. Answers will be found on the classified page.

LII
It's hard to say who is most rich,
The man with lots of dough;
Or is it just the man who's poor,
But happiness can show?

Sometimes a rich man spends a night,
In gales of laughter loud;
Surrounded by unworthy friends,
Whose motives they behold.

They think the poor man just a craven,
Who never has real fun;
They pity him, he knows it not,
When his day's work is done.

The rich man and his low friends wallow
In revelry and song;
The poor man earns his daily bread,
And does to no man wrong.

FIGURES SHOW
DECREASE HERE
IN BABY DEATHS

Santa Ana is making progress in its fight against death at the cradle, figures revealed today. This was learned by The Register in a check of local and national census groups and bureaus.

The figures are for 1934, but have just been compiled, and permit a comparison between that year and 1933.

For every 1000 babies born alive in Santa Ana in 1934, 14 were born dead, the reports show. During the previous year, 32 Santa Ana babies were born dead for every 1000 born alive.

County Reports

Rural Orange county (excluding all cities of 10,000 or over) reported 29 still births, to each 1000 live births in 1934, as compared with 27 babies born dead to each 1000 born alive in the previous year.

The percentage of still-births in Santa Ana's colored population was 10 per 1000 in 1934, while only three still-births were reported in Santa Ana among the colored population in 1933. This compared favorably with the record for white still-births of 15 per 1000 in 1934 and 32 per 1000 in 1933.

Deaths of babies under one year of age increased slightly in ratio in Santa Ana from 1933 to 1934, the report shows. In 1934, the ratio was 35.5 per thousand live births while in 1933 it was 31.3. For rural Orange county, this ratio was 22.6 in 1934 as compared with 66.4 in 1933.

PET TALKS

By MRS. T. J. NEAL

So many people have the idea that a puppy should not be bathed until five or six months old. We don't wait that long to bathe babies. Puppies can be bathed at the age of six weeks or sooner if necessary. Generally the mother sees to it that they are kept clean up to the weaning age. Thorough drying of the coat is necessary and the puppy should not be taken out of doors until he is perfectly dry and warm to prevent chilling. Afterward a bath may be given once a month in the winter and once a week in hot weather. The thing is, not to let them take cold.

Ingels Scores
Critics Of His
Safety Plans

Resenting accusations that his program of traffic safety is a "soak the motorist" campaign, Ray Ingels, state motor vehicle department director, today delivered a message to Capt. H. C. Meehan of the Orange county California highway patrol unit.

"My campaign is for safe drivers and safe cars," Ingels said, "and until a better plan is proposed I will stand behind my suggestions. With 3132 persons in their graves as a result of automobile accidents last year, and with nearly 50,000 injured, it is evident that something must be done. The cry that I plan to soak the motorist is unfounded. The cost of 50 cents for as many inspections as wanted in the six months period is not excessive."

Inspection of cars is not a new idea, Ingels declared, as it has been made in other states and in some of the larger cities of the country. "As the Rotary International says, Everybody talks safety; let us do something about it," said Ingels. "I am attempting to do something about it."

The moult and they remain bald. Select one crested parent and let the other be a plain-headed bird. The off-spring then will either have crests or full feathered heads.

ENGINEERS' CLUB MEETS

ANAHEIM, March 22.—Orange County Engineers' club members recently witnessed a showing of a new color film depicting the history of California highways from El Camino Real to the present system when they met at the Anaheim Elks club. The meeting followed a 6:30 dinner and was open to others than club members who were interested in seeing the picture. Anaheim Engineer E. P. Hagood was official host.

WHITE DEPICTS
HIGH AIMS OF SCOUTING HERE

Looking forward to rapid and successful organization of what promises to be one of the outstanding boy scout troops in Orange county—the new police troop—Harrison White, scout executive, today commented on salient features of the purpose of the work of his organization.

"Two of the main interests we have," White declared, "are the development of citizenship training and character building."

"The local council is a part of the regional board which composes four states. Right now, 1,300,000 boys are under the leadership of volunteers as police and other outstanding community workers. The Boy Scout movement includes in its hopes the rehabilitation of many boys who haven't had much of a chance."

Receives Applications
Detective Sergeant Hunter Leach today was receiving scores of applications for membership in the new troop.

Continuing his explanation of the high aims of the scouts, White described the three divisions of the Boy Scout movement as the "Tenderfoot" class; second class, and first class. He said the Scoutmaster must be an out-of-door man capable of the hardships which a Scout must experience in his adventures. "Sometimes, we give too much credit to the youngsters where credit isn't due. We must establish a place where the troops can play and hold their meetings."

"A Scout meeting is the place where we re-charge the battery of a scout. If a scout cannot provide his own equipment, it will be necessary for us to provide it for him—but he will have to earn it." Cost of a Scout uniform approximates $9. Three patrols consisting of 21 boys, is the quota at present.

Miss Spencer
Is Bride At Church Rites

Snowy white sweet peas and lilies were massed with peach blossoms and greenery Saturday evening at the altar of Episcopal church of Messiah, where Miss Hazel Irene Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Spencer, 222 East Twentieth street, Costa Mesa, became the bride of Richard Pinkerton, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Pinkerton, 2135 North Main street.

Tall white tapers illumined the pretty setting, with its background of palms. Miss Ruth Armstrong was at the organ, playing a medley of love songs including "O Promise Me" and "Because," preceding the ceremony. The bride's bouquet was of white roses, lilies of the valley and delphinium.

Attendants
Miss Betty Hawk, as maid of honor, was in a peach orandy gown, with a white angel skin jacket, and a floor length veil. Her bouquet was of white roses, lilies of the valley and delphinium.

Gene Hall was best man. Ushers were the bride's brother, Albert Spencer, and Dr. Witt Bishop.

One hundred and twenty-five guests were present for the ceremony, which was read at 8 o'clock by the Rev. W. J. Hatter.

White flowers and greenery decorated the parish hall, where a reception was held. The bride's mother, Mrs. Spencer, wore a blue and white dress with navy blue skirt in redingote style, blue accessories and a corsage bouquet of carnations.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Pinkerton left for a trip to San Francisco, Berkeley and Oakland, the bride attired in a grey suit with grey caracul coat and navy blue accessories. On their return the young couple will live in Balboa.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Santa Ana high school and Junior college, completed his studies at University of California, Berkeley, where he became affiliated with Chi Epsilon fraternity. He is employed in the Flood Control office.

Mrs. Pinkerton followed graduation from Santa Ana high school and studies at Junior college, where she was a member of Sisterhood of Spinsters.

Mr. And Mrs. Sedoris

Not a half century alone, but six additional years of married life were observed in happy fashion Saturday in the suburban home on Route 1 of Mr. and Mrs. L. Sedoris. For on March 20, 1881, Mr. and Mrs. Sedoris were wedded in Kansas. They have lived in Orange county 24 years.

Gold Rush Days Are
Topic For Section
Program

Gold rush days in California provided the theme for an interesting talk given by Mrs. T. E. Stephenson Friday afternoon at a monthly meeting of Ebell Sixth Household Economics section in the clubhouse.

Hostesses were Mesdames W. H. Harrison, W. A. Taylor and Dama Smith, serving luncheon at tables bright with Easter appointments.

Mrs. P. A. Robinson, who had been ill and unable to attend recent meetings, was welcomed back to the sessions. Attending with her was her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Charles Robinson.

It was reported that Mrs. S. M. Davis, member of the group, is quite ill at her home.

Twenty-seven members were present for the luncheon program. In connection with her informative talk, Mrs. Stephenson reviewed several books written by pioneer Californians.

Plans were made to hold a food and fancy work sale at the section's April meeting. Proceeds from the affair will go to the group's fund for general Ebell society.

Sunday Afternoon
Party Honors
Miss Huber

Pre-nuptial courtesies for Miss Marcia Huber continue to dot the spring calendar, with the latest affair occurring Sunday afternoon in the Hollywood home of Miss Eva Birkenshaw. Miss Carleen Tucker of Long Beach, who has a wide circle of acquaintances in Santa Ana, was co-hostess.

Alpha Omicron Pi sorority sisters of Miss Huber were hidden to the pleasant affair, which served as a get-together for the former college classmates. Miscellaneous gifts to go into the Fresno ranch home which Miss Huber and her fiancé, Kenneth Price, are planning, were showered upon the honoree during the affair.

Refreshments were served at the close of bridge play shared by the bride-to-be; the two hostesses and Mesdames George Fisher, Alhambra; John Nolan, Kenneth Kin- gree, John Waldron, Ernest Mc- Ritchie, the Misses Beth Caldwell, Virginia Overbeck, Marjorie Alice Lentz, Ruth Ober, Los Angeles; Patsy Mitchell, Veda Reese, Holly- wood.

Engaged Pair Inspire
Surprise Dinner
At Laguna

When Miss Virginia Anthony and her fiancé, Chester Ewing, arrived at the Laguna Beach home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Francis Sunday evening, they were surprised to find a little group of friends assembled for a dinner party of bridal appointments.

Mrs. Francis, who was Miss Mae Belle Lupo preceding her recent marriage, had planned the affair as a pleasant courtesy to Miss Anthony and Mr. Ewing, whose marriage will take place April 2.

Joining the hosts and the engaged pair for dinner were Miss Helen Glancy, James Getty, Miss Margaret Ragsdale and Willard Francis. Dinner was served at a table centered with pink and white stocks and appointed with individual rice bag place cards. With the last course was served a wedding cake topped with bridegroom and bride figures.

Miss Anthony and Mr. Ewing were presented with a bridge table and card set as a gift of the assembled group.

PLAN HOUSE PARTY
Completing plans for their week's stay at Balboa during spring vacation, members of Eta Pi sorority met Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. Wesley Weaver, the former Miss Ina Love, in Corona Del Mar. After the short business meeting, the group presented the hostess with a lovely toaster set. Refreshments carrying out the St. Patrick's theme were served.

Members present were the Misses Arlene Sorenson, Vivian Rowles, Zanelli Morton, Lucia Nielson, Marguerite Nielson, Du Verne Lambert, Ruth Mary Reichstein and pledges, Mrs. Weaver, the Misses Mildred Nordstrom and Betty Vosskuhl.

Years of Wedded Life
Have Been Portion
Of Local Couple

Fifty-six years ago, in the Sun-flower state of Kansas, when Mr. and Mrs. L. Sedoris started their married life, it is a question as to whether they ever dreamed that more than half a century later, they would enjoy the peaceful sunset days of life together in California.

Saturday when the anniversary of the Kansas wedding arrived, it was given a quiet but happy observance in the family home on Route 2. For Mr. Sedoris, after years of activity, has been in frail health for the past few months, so the 56th wedding anniversary was given no special celebration. But cards and flowers and greetings, and the presence of Santa Ana members of the family circle, gave special luster to the occasion.

When the family came to California two dozen years ago, it was to leave two sons in Kansas. A. R. Sedoris who lives in Pittsburg, and V. L. Sedoris whose home is in Edna. But there are two other sons and a daughter here in the Southland, Cleve and Roy Sedoris, both of the home, and Mrs. H. C. Miller, 1071 West Second street.

Mr. and Mrs. Sedoris have many descendants, for they have four grandchildren and one great-granddaughter still in the east, while here in Santa Ana they boast two granddaughters, two grandsons, one great-grandson and one great-granddaughter.

Just because the cake board had places for 72 birthday candles, last night number circled a luscious cake and twinkled their greetings last night when Mrs. George Miles arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Stephenson Jr., 1003 Orange avenue.

The Stephenson family recently went into the Homer Chaney home while the Chaney's are absent on their extended eastern trip. Mrs. Miles believed that last night's party was an informal housewarming planned by Mr. Stephenson as a surprise to Mrs. Stephenson. So she tip-toed in with the rest of the conspirators, only to discover that it was actually a birthday event and she was the incentive!

Everybody present reverted to childhood and entered with spirit into an Easter egg hunt. The colored eggs were hidden ingeniously, but Mrs. Bruce Monroe and Lyle ("Andy") Anderson each discovered a sufficient quantity to win a most amazing red cat for the former and an equally inspiring pink elephant for the latter.

As the evening of merriment drew to a close, the guests became serious long enough to present to Mrs. Miles, a handsome hors d'oeuvre platter in white Francis can pottery, and to enjoy the birthday cake served with coffee poured by Mrs. Rowland.

In the party with hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Stephenson Jr., were Messrs. and Mesdames George Miles, Bruce Monroe, H. T. Dunning, John S. McCarty, Lyle Anderson, and Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Rowland.

Birthday Honors Come

Cleverly engineered by Mrs. W. Clark Sackman, 1314 East Fourth street, was a birthday celebration of Saturday night, which came as a happy surprise to Mr. Sackman on his natal anniversary.

A few close friends from this city were bidden to join the out-of-town guest group which included Mrs. Sackman's mother and brother, Mrs. Irredell McIntosh and Douglas McIntosh of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Al Hood and Mrs. Irene McIntosh of Long Beach and Mr. and Mrs. George D. Sackman of Alhambra.

There was a merry interval of games and varied entertainment climaxed with the presentation of birthday gifts to the host, who was especially delighted to receive among other articles, a saucy little fox terrier pup.

The evening closed with the serving by Mrs. Sackman of birthday cake, ice cream and coffee.

So she tip-toed in with the rest of the conspirators, only to discover that it was actually a birthday event and she was the incentive!

Everybody present reverted to childhood and entered with spirit into an Easter egg hunt. The colored eggs were hidden ingeniously, but Mrs. Bruce Monroe and Lyle ("Andy") Anderson each discovered a sufficient quantity to win a most amazing red cat for the former and an equally inspiring pink elephant for the latter.

As the evening of merriment drew to a close, the guests became serious long enough to present to Mrs. Miles, a handsome hors d'oeuvre platter in white Francis can pottery, and to enjoy the birthday cake served with coffee poured by Mrs. Rowland.

In the party with hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Stephenson Jr., were Messrs. and Mesdames George Miles, Bruce Monroe, H. T. Dunning, John S. McCarty, Lyle Anderson, and Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Rowland.

Birthday Honors Come
As Surprise to Host

Cleverly engineered by Mrs. W. Clark Sackman, 1314 East Fourth street, was a birthday celebration of Saturday night, which came as a happy surprise to Mr. Sackman on his natal anniversary.

A few close friends from this city were bidden to join the out-of-town guest group which included Mrs. Sackman's mother and brother, Mrs. Irredell McIntosh and Douglas McIntosh of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Al Hood and Mrs. Irene McIntosh of Long Beach and Mr. and Mrs. George D. Sackman of Alhambra.

There was a merry interval of games and varied entertainment climaxed with the presentation of birthday gifts to the host, who was especially delighted to receive among other articles, a saucy little fox terrier pup.

The evening closed with the serving by Mrs. Sackman of birthday cake, ice cream and coffee.

PLAN HOUSE PARTY
Completing plans for their week's stay at Balboa during spring vacation, members of Eta Pi sorority met Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. Wesley Weaver, the former Miss Ina Love, in Corona Del Mar. After the short business meeting, the group presented the hostess with a lovely toaster set. Refreshments carrying out the St. Patrick's theme were served.

Members present were the Misses Arlene Sorenson, Vivian Rowles, Zanelli Morton, Lucia Nielson, Marguerite Nielson, Du Verne Lambert, Ruth Mary Reichstein and pledges, Mrs. Weaver, the Misses Mildred Nordstrom and Betty Vosskuhl.

Agricultural Group
Has Program on Mexico

County Agricultural Commissioner's office and field staff of inspectors held a dinner Friday night at Danigers, where members and their wives to the number of 41, assembled for a program arranged by Mr. and Mrs. John Backus.

Arthur J. McFadden was speaker, telling of his recent trip to Mexico. The sugar, coffee and banana industries of the neighboring country were discussed. The talk highlighted a program on Mexican theme, with Mrs. W. O. Hart of Orange singing several solos, and her daughter, Miss Rosemary Hart doing a spirited dance. Mrs. Christine Lambert was at the piano as accompanist.

Mr. and Mrs. Backus had arranged the clever table decorations, which were gourd, miniature Mexican orxarts filled with cactus and gourds and other colorful articles. Silhouetted Mexican figures adorned the place-cards, which were the handwork of Mrs. Backus.

Honor guests of the evening were three former staff members who recently left the department, Mrs. John Henry of Anaheim; Mrs. E. N. Lane of Santa Ana and Kenneth Sloop, now connected with the Agriculture Commissioner's office in Los Angeles. Gifts were presented to Mrs. Lane and Mrs. Henry.

T. E. McLeod, president of Agricultural Inspection association presided over the program. Special guests included Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Tubbs, Mrs. Lane, Mrs. Henry and Kenneth Sloop. Others were Messrs. and Mesdames Floyd Black, J. Lee Hewitt, E. Johnston, Paul Andres, E. C. Knight, J. E. Backus, J. B. Walden, George W. Sloop, R. J. Starbuck, T. E. McLeod, Mesdames W. O. Hart, Josephine Fletcher, Eva Gooden, Lorene Thurlow, Mabel Woods, the Misses Ruth Bowman of Anaheim and Rosemary Hart of Orange; Messrs. R. J. Baumgartner, Edward Dudley, J. A. Hill, A. B. Perkins, and Fitzpatrick of Anaheim. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Backus headed the committee for dinner and program plans.

Pre-nuptial Parties
Honor March Bride

Latest of the charming parties in advance of the wedding of Miss Merrilee Rankin and Kenneth E. Reafsnider, which occurred last Friday night in this city, was the bridal dinner at which Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Reafsnider complimented their son and his fiancée in their home, 131 Eighth street, Garden Grove.

Given on the night of St. Patrick's day, the dinner party was based on an Irish decorative scheme, which appeared wherever possible in the tempting menu itself. Covers were laid for the hosts and honor guests, and for Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rankin, Miss Beatrice Rankin, Earl Rankin Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell and Jack Mitchell.

The list of hospitalities included also an evening bridge party at which the Misses Alice Martin and Dorothy Preble brought some of Miss Rankin's closest friends together in Miss Martin's home, 1236 South Ross street.

This event also stressed the Irish theme, especially in bridge prizes awarded Miss Alma Garthe and Mrs. John Smith, and in appointments for serving food, cake and coffee after the bride-elect had been generously showered with gifts in crystal.

Club Has Luncheon
In E. R. Roehm Home

Mrs. Elton Roehm entertained her bridge club at luncheon Thursday in her home on Newport road before bridge play in the afternoon. The table was centered with a tempting fruit centerpiece reflected by a mirror.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. George Shippe, high, and Mrs. Elmer Smith, second. Mrs. Della Maude Ryan will be hostess to the group April 1 in her home at 806 South Ross street.

Present with the hostesses were Mesdames Walter Wright, William Dean, Glen Lycan, Ora Jennings, Elmer Smith, George Shippe, Al Adrian, Della Maude Ryan, R. N. Wimbush, William Sylvester and Lillian Dawson.

The Mixing Bowl
By ANN MEREDITH

A reader requests publication of a "good" recipe for caramel frosting; she says further that she has asked so many people for a good recipe, but has never been able to get one. Not being bomb-proof on caramel frostings, all I can do is give the recipe used in my own house, with a boiled frosting for second choice.

For an uncooked caramel frosting this is "tops". Into a mixing bowl sift 2 cups of powdered sugar. If the cake is layer, slightly less if a sheet cake. Make a dent with the spoon, drop in a whole, un-beaten egg, a teaspoonful of vanilla, 1/3 teaspoon maple extract, 2 tablespoons very strong black coffee (cold). Give this mixture a couple of good whisks with the egg beater, then add slowly, as the beating proceeds, half of a quarter-pound cube of butter, melted and sizzling hot. The icing will be a trifle "runny" until the butter cools but this is an icing that stays soft until the last bite.

The ingredients required for the boiled caramel icing are:
1/2 cup hot milk or thin cream
1/2 cup white sugar
2/3 cup granulated sugar
1/2 pound butter

Few drops of vanilla and maple extracts.
Mix sugar, cream and soft butter off the stove until sugar has dissolved. Bring to a simmering boil over a medium flame; stir constantly, and test often for the "soft ball" stage (syrup dropped in cold water). When this point has been reached, remove from fire, let stand until half cold, then beat until creamy and ready to spread. Add extracts during beating.

Artist Recital Gives
Rare Pleasure
To Many Studio Guests

An afternoon of sheer enjoyment experienced yesterday by members and many guests of Orange County MacDowell Colony league in the Gustin Music Arts studio, had in addition to its fine program, the added interest of the presence as honor guest of Mrs. Edward MacDowell.

One of the Southland's rising young composers, Frances Marion Ralston was featured on the recital program, for not only did she play brilliantly but her compositions were featured, including a Sonata for violin and piano and several beautiful songs. Guests were definitely interested in the vigor which marks Miss Ralston's compositions, yet the depths of tenderness displayed. She writes in the modern idiom, and yet with a degree of musical understanding that makes her work brilliant and arresting.

The composer expressed lively appreciation of the manner in which her songs, "My Rose," "Victory" and "I Believe It" (from "Saul," a symphonic cantata) were interpreted by Mrs. F. W. Slabaugh, one of this city's favorite contraltos. Mr. Gustin was at the piano for the song numbers.

Otherwise the artists were from out of the city. Roxana Weihe is a gifted Los Angeles pianist who played the first piano in Miss Ralston's "Sonata No. 2," with the composer at the second piano. Miss Ruth Haroldson, violinist, whose artistry was demonstrated in the Sonata for violin and piano, is head of the violin department at Whittier College where she is conductor of the Whittier College-Community Symphony orchestra.

Mrs. MacDowell followed her introduction with an informal talk on the famous colony in Peterborough where so many of the country's gifted men and women have developed their talents. Before the program closed, Mr. Gustin announced the Orange County League's next meeting date as May 16 when Sabra Stees Kirk, councillor of MacDowell Junior League of Los Angeles, will bring artists from the League membership.

Guests were present from Los Angeles, Pasadena, Baldwin Park, Monrovia and Whittier, and included Mr. and Mrs. Gustin's house-guests, Mrs. Clara Woodford and her niece, Miss Alice Tompkins of Knowledgeville, N. Y., who have been spending the winter in Los Angeles.

All lingered after the recital to express to the artists, their appreciation of the delightful afternoon. Mrs. Gustin served tea, and asked Mrs. Slabaugh to preside at the charmingly arranged table.

Arbor Vitae Members
Play Cards
Following Luncheon

Luncheon at Danigers was enjoyed Thursday afternoon by members of Arbor Vitae club, who were seated at prettily-arranged tables centered with pansies. Mesdames Mary Hertel, Charles Hawthorne and Edward Grothier were on the committee in charge of arrangements for the affair.

Following luncheon the group was invited to the home of Mrs. Grothier, 114 South Broadway, for an afternoon of cards. Mrs. Leonard Coon won first prize, while galloping awards went to Mrs. C. R. Walter and Mrs. William Almas.

Present were Mesdames A. L. Lane, C. R. Walter, Harry McIvlin, William Almas, Peter McIntosh, Ralph Fuller, G. N. Coon, Leonard Coon, Edward Grothier, Mary Hertel, Elmie Swan, Charles Hawthorne.

Happy Observance
Given Tenth Birthday

Although his birthday anniversary was not until yesterday, friends of Richard Dean gathered in his home at 1103 Louise street Friday afternoon in celebration of his tenth birthday anniversary.

Outdoor games and contests were enjoyed during the afternoon, with Billy West receiving a prize. Later the little guests were assembled around the large dining table where the birthday cake in the form of a boat with white sails and candles forming the hand rails, greeted their eyes. The table cloth was dark blue, creating a smooth sea for the sailing of the ship. Favors of life savers arranged like cannons were at each place, and the nautical theme was further carried out by the motif on the plates and the napkins. After the refreshments of birthday cake and ice cream served by the honoree's mother, Mrs. F. W. Dean, and his sister, Juliana, the gifts which were heaped around the centerpiece of the table were opened.

The little guests included Charles Schlager, Wendell Cole, Carl and Douglas Winterbourne, Donald Nielson, Richard Holman, Jere Sheppard, Don Ray Adkinson, Rodney Brown, Tony Anderson, Billy West, Terry Razan, Douglas Carmichael, Bill Holman, and the host.

Church Societies

Delta Alpha Class
Delta Alpha class of First M. E. church met Thursday evening in the home of the Misses Edna and Verna Knoll, 415 Fruit street. Miss Clara Barnes and Miss Gertrude Ladd assisted as co-hostesses.

Miss Esther Hendrickson presided over the business meeting, after which games were played. Miss Alta Thomas was adjudged the best artist in a drawing contest, with Miss Lilley Confer second.

Refreshments were served buffet style from a table decorated in green and white in honor of St. Patrick's day, and with bunnies and candy eggs for the approaching Easter season. Miss Alta Thomas was pleasantly surprised to receive a pink and white frosted birthday cake baked by Miss Clara Barnes. This was served with other cakes and whipped jelly.

Present were the Mesdames Mary L. Bowen, Lela Moore, the Misses Esther Hendrickson, Charlotte Carhart, Irma De Barr, Minnie Wild, Melissa Burt, Hattie Corneil, Beulah Cornett, Bertha Brinley, Lilley Confer, Lena Confer, Anna Canfield, Beulah Stone, Maude Thomas, Alta Thomas, one guest, Miss Mettie May Barnes, and the four hostesses.

Friendship Circle
Miss Grace Madden of Osaka, Japan, visitor in the Southland, told of her experiences as a missionary in the Orient when she was speaker at a recent meeting of South Santa Ana Church of Christ in the home of Mrs. C. F. Rathbone, 712 East Chestnut street.

Miss Madden, who has been teaching kindergarten students in a Mission in Osaka where her parents are stationed, discussed "The Life of the Average Mother and Child in Japan."

Luncheon was served by Mrs. E. E. Nichols, Mrs. C. F. Rathbone, Miss Mary Pafford and Mrs. Joseph French.

Sharing guest honors with Miss Madden was Miss Hazel Kirk, Dean of Women of Pacific Bible Seminary, Long Beach. Miss Madden remained for the evening meeting of South Santa Ana Church of Christ, giving an address at that time. She appeared in appropriate costume.

Springtime Theme
Prevails
At Bridge Party

Pastel tints of early spring dominated appointments for a pretty party at which Mrs. Lloyd Folger entertained a little group of close friends the past week in her home on West First street.

Sunny fonquills and maidenhair fern formed a centerpiece on a table spread with hand-made lace cloth. Suggestive of the Easter season were other decorations for dessert course served in advance of contract bridge play.

Cellophane bows and wrappings furthering the Easter theme, adorned prizes which rewarded Mrs. J. Hershiser for high score and Mrs. A. A. Hardy, winner of traveling award.

Mrs. Folger's guests were Mesdames Joe Steele, A. A. Hardy, William Holmes, H. H. Dimmitt, F. J. Hershiser, Ray Wyckoff, this city; Mrs. Joseph Hambley, Balboa Island.

V. F. W. Auxiliary

Eleven new members have been welcomed into Ernest L. Kellogg auxiliary V. F. W. since the current membership campaign opened. It was announced by Mrs. Anna Sullivan during Friday night's meeting of the group in Knights of Pythias hall.

Mrs. Irene Stewart conducted the meeting, during which Miss Thelma Charles was initiated as a new member. Visitors were Mrs. Blanche Warden, president of V. F. W. auxiliary in Brownsville, Tex.; Mesdames Lillian Martens, Myrtle Mallin and Frankie Beat, Anaheim. Announcement was made that Sewing club members will hold an all day meeting Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Lena Hansen, 320 time. She appeared in appropriate costume.

Mrs. Spurgeon Brings
Friends Together
For Luncheon

Just an intimate gathering of friends, all deeply interested in Mrs. Christopher B. Diehl's departure with Judge Diehl for a spring and summer visit to her native England, was the charming manner in which Mrs. William H. Spurgeon entertained Thursday in her home, 1617 North Main street.

The friendly intimacy of the interval during which the guests lunched together at a table where spring garden flowers seemed to bloom, continued throughout the afternoon. Travel was the principal conversational theme, not only the contemplated voyage and summer in England of the honoree, but earlier travels of the hostess and various members of her guest group.

In the party with Mrs. Spurgeon and Mrs. Diehl, were Mesdames Mrs. Emrys D. White and her house-guests, Miss Caroline White of Dillon, Mont., and Redlands, and Mrs. Ray Fager (Margaret White) of Chicago, with Mrs. Elliott Rowland, Mrs. Lester Carden, Mrs. Roy Russell and Mrs. Harry L. Hanson.

Play Review Given
For Worthwhile Club

Reviewing the play "Stage Door" by Edna Ferber and George Kaufman, Mona Summers Smith of the Public library provided an entertaining program for members of Worthwhile club when they assembled Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. C. F. Millen, 510 West Santa Clara avenue.

Mrs. Anita Alexander, of the reference department of the library, who was to have been speaker, was ill and unable to attend.

Added to Mrs. Smith's program were songs by Mrs. J. Law and Mrs. Mary Herring, accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Mitchell, and piano numbers by Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Herring.

Serving pie and tea at the close of the afternoon, Mrs. Millen was assisted by a committee composed of Mesdames A. Lagassee and Anna Nelson.

Sharing the affair with 14 members were guests including Mrs. Law and Mesdames William Whitehead, C. W. Ralston, W. D. Miller and Lee King.

The next meeting will be held April 1 in the home of Mrs. George McKinney, 119 West Nineteenth street.

QUIT SOLDIERING FOR CULTURE

BEING the son of the Khedive, Ismail Pasha, ruler of Egypt, looked like a sinecure to all but the actual scion, Ahmed Fuad. The young hopeful was being schooled in military science in Europe, and quickly rose to command of a division in the Egyptian army. But Ahmed Fuad had no interest in fighting, so, in 1906, he resigned to devote himself to the cultural and intellectual advancement of his country.

He founded a university and became its first president. In 1914, he revived the Royal Geographic Society of Egypt, and organized other scientific enterprises, the most important being a study of the Nile Valley.

Fuad became King of Egypt in 1922, upon termination of the British protectorate, and continued his program of education for his people. His one great hobby was stamps, and he was said to have owned one of the most valuable collections in the world. He died in 1936, at 68. One of the earlier stamps portraying King Fuad is shown here.

Easter Eggs Are Sent To Hospital

ORANGE, March 22.—Pupils of grammar schools of the city participated in Easter parties the latter part of the week before leaving to enjoy a week's vacation. At Center street school eggs were dyed and sent to the children's ward at the county hospital in 40 baskets gray with Easter colors. About 150 eggs were colored, a part of which the children took home. The egg coloring event is an annual one in the school at Easter time and is under the direction of Miss Mattie Danner, principal.

Children of the West Orange school having studied for the week previous to the close of school, on Easter observances in various countries and the reasons for the establishment of the day, finished the study by making Easter baskets under the direction of teachers of the school and Mrs. Lotta Brannon, principal. Maple street pupils enjoyed an Easter egg hunt in the rooms, while Lyla Killifer pupils enjoyed Easter parties within each room.

Under the direction of Mrs. Frances Hippard, principal, Cypress street school children, made Easter baskets which were filled with candy eggs and chocolate rabbits.

At El Modena first and second grades of the Roosevelt school of which Mrs. Eunice Klopstad is teacher, enjoyed dinner and games in Irvine park while members of the third and fourth grades, with Miss Alice Raymond as teacher, enjoyed an Easter egg hunt.

A group of Czech-Slovakian dancers, introduction of the new teachers and superintendent of schools, C. J. Brower was held in the dining room.

A journeying to the auditorium the group heard a lecture on "How Can a Teacher Tell When He Is Getting Results," by Dr. Burton of the University of Southern California.

County Teachers' Association Holds Meeting

LA HABRA, March 22.—The Orange County Teachers' Association was entertained Thursday evening by the teachers of the La Habra schools. A 6:30 dinner was served in the cafeteria rooms by the local P.-T. A. at tables which were colorful in the Easter motif, featuring bunnies and spring flowers in pastel shades.

Entertainment was furnished by a group of Czech-Slovakian dancers. Introduction of the new teachers and superintendent of schools, C. J. Brower was held in the dining room.

Holy Week Rites Are Planned

OLIVE, March 22.—In keeping with accepted Lutheran custom, St. Paul's will observe Holy Week with two special services. The English service will be held tonight and Thursday evening at 7:30. Instead of preaching a sermon, the pastor will read the Passion History of the Savior and the congregation will sing appropriate Passion Hymns. The German service will be held Good Friday morning at ten o'clock, the pastor preaching on the words of John the Baptist: "Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world."

The English Easter service will be held at sunrise, 5:45, the pastor speaking on "The Rising Easter Sun in the Christian's Life." The German service will be held at ten o'clock, the pastor speaking on the theme: "Christ's Resurrection: The Foundation of our Faith." On Easter Monday an English service will be held at 7:30 in the evening, the Rev. A. G. Webber of Orange preaching the sermon. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these services.

ORATORIO WILL BE PRESENTED

ORANGE, March 22.—"The Crucifixion" an oratorio by Stainer, will be presented Thursday at 7:45 p. m. at Trinity Episcopal church, according to an announcement made today by the director, Mrs. William Charles Armstrong.

Mrs. Merrill Bauer of Santa Ana will preside at the organ, while the following soloists will sing: Gustav D. Koehler, guest artist and tenor from the Church of the Messiah Episcopal church of Santa Ana; Jack Feather, tenor, or Orange; and Charles P. Armstrong, T. E. Arrowsmith, Richard Gregg, and Donald Krueger, all bass singers of Orange.

The presentation of the oratorio is a part of impressive services planned by the church for Easter week.

Last Rites Are Observed For Marzette Caples

ORANGE, March 22.—Funeral services for Marzette Caples, 53, who passed away March 17 at his home, 622 West Chapman avenue, were held Saturday morning at the C. W. Coffey funeral chapel with the Rev. B. D. Webster, pastor of the Church of God, officiating.

A quartet consisting of Mrs. Herbert Riggan, Mrs. Fred Germany, George W. Duke and Jack Hutton, all of the Church of Christ of Santa Ana, offered two vocal selections, "Shall We Gather at the River" and "Pass Me Not, Oh Gentle Saviour."

Funeralbearers were: Messrs. J. E. James, W. J. Thomas, R. Davis, Robert Stewart, John Stewart and H. E. Morrill. Interment was in Fairhaven cemetery.

Mrs. Caples, who was born in Meridian, Miss., had lived in Orange for the past 5 years.

Survivors are his widow; Mrs. Mary Pearl Caples; five sons, Chester J., Robert M., Edward M., and Albert F., all of Orange, and Leslie C. of Fullerton; four grandchildren; three brothers, James A. or Orange, Charles and Calvin of Texas; and one sister, Mrs. Mollie Franklin of Hillsboro, Texas.

MAKE TOUR

EL MODENA, March 22.—Members of the El Modena Friends Missionary society made a tour of the Winbiger undertaking establishment this week. The group was personally conducted through the establishment by members of the staff, and the brief lectures proved very interesting and educational.

Included in the group were Mr. and Mrs. George Dillard, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mapson, Mrs. Fred Mahoney, Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Sorenson, Mrs. J. S. Stern, Mrs. W. D. Granger, Mrs. Frank Sonderlicker, Mrs. John Turner, Mrs. Charles Kennedy, Mrs. Carl Conway, Mrs. Mary Lentz, Mrs. A. O. Hodson, Miss Mary Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Koenig, Mrs. W. A. Settle, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Roberts, Mrs. George Bartley, Mrs. Oscar Stanfield and Mrs. Myrtle Ruff.

ORANGE PERSONALS

Mrs. Kellar Watson Jr. and daughter, Kay, are spending the week in Vallejo, with the former's parents.

SECTION TO SET DATES FOR SHOW

ORANGE, March 22.—Paul J. Walker of Long Beach will be the speaker at a luncheon meeting of the Garden section of the Orange Woman's club when dates for the Garden show will be set. Walker will discuss "Out of Door Living Rooms." Mrs. Perry Grout will preside.

The Garden show is presented each spring by the club as a whole, sections assuming the varied responsibilities of tea room, program, food and candy sales with the flower and garden exhibits, which are open to the community, directed by the Garden group.

Dates for the show this year were selected last fall for April 15 and 16. Cold weather this winter retarded growth of many vines and shrubs and at the last meeting of the Garden section plans were discussed for postponing the show until later in the spring.

Hostesses tomorrow are Mrs. D. V. Rothenberger, Mrs. Henry Marguait and Mrs. Vernon Shippee. The section will present the club program at the next club meeting on April 5 with hostesses, Mrs. Earl Crawford, Mrs. Perry Grout, Mrs. Donald Smiley and Mrs. A. H. Halleck.

SUNRISE RITES ANNOUNCED

ORANGE, March 22.—The Rev. H. F. Sheerer, pastor of the First Baptist church, is to deliver the sermon for the sunrise services planned for Easter on Orange Heights. It is announced, Everett Claypool has completed details for the event to be held at 5:35 a. m. under the direction of the young men's division of the Y. M. C. A.

A baritone solo, "The Holy City," will be given by Thomas Flippin. Miss Lois Allen is to be the accompanist while Fred Bewley will act as leader for group singing. Randall Bivins, Tom Powell and Donald Todd are assisting Claypool in making arrangements. Robert Serr will give the trumpet call to worship. The invocation will be given by the Rev. William R. Holder, pastor of the First Christian church.

Dr. Robert Burns McAulay will read Henry Van Dyke's "God of the Open Air." The Rev. Arthur T. Holston, pastor of the First Methodist church, is to read the scriptural selections and the Rev. J. S. Sorenson, pastor of the El Modena Friends church, will give the benediction.

The Rev. Mr. Sheerer has selected the subject, "The Realities of the Resurrection" as the topic for the early morning message.

Daughters Hear Program And Travel Talk

ORANGE, March 22.—Daughters of Union Veterans met yesterday in the American Legion clubhouse auxiliary rooms for an all-day session and program. Mrs. Belle Condon paid a tribute to Grover Cleveland, past president of the United States, whose birthday was March 18. Mrs. Anna Slater concluded the program with a talk of her three-months trip through the state of Florida. A covered dish luncheon was served at noon.

Mrs. Jennie Bell presided at the business meeting. A memorial service for the former vice-president of the group, the late Mrs. Ella Robinson, was held. Mrs. Robinson, an active and loved member of the organization, passed away on March 6.

Two appropriations were made, including the one to the Grand Army permanent fund and one to cover expenses of a delegate to the state convention the week of April 25 at Stockton. Mrs. Jennie Bell, the president, will represent the unit.

Present were Mesdames Jennie Bell, Johnnie Mollica, Della Bishop, Belle Barnes, Audrey Peterson, Lelah Hughes, Lillian Westover, Abigail McAdoo, Clara Hodson, Amelia Hart, Cora Wood, Belle Condon, Harriet Perry, Gladys Shoemaker, Harriet Siegfried, Alma Coffey, Ora Benson, Della Athey and Anna Slater.

Music Features Church Program

ORANGE, March 22.—The choir of the Orange Presbyterian church last night presented an evening of music which featured a variety of solo, duet, quartet, and chorus numbers.

Commemorating the triumphal entry of the Palm Sunday, Granier's "Hosanna" was rendered as an organ solo, followed by the chorus, "Ride on in Majesty" by Scott. After the short-lived triumph came the suffering of Jesus' last days. The music took on the solemn aspect of the crucifixion with meditations on the sacrifice of the cross, and the influence on mankind. This was brought out in the following numbers: Solo: "The Good Shepherd," by Barri, sung by Mrs. Paul Clark; "The Crucifix" by Faure, Messrs. Vern Estes, and Wilbur Carpenter; "Surely He Hath Borne Our Grief," by Handel, by choir; "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross" by Hope, Mrs. Carl Pister; "Lead Kindly Light" by Mrs. Carl Pister, Misses Jo Green, Myrtle Livernash, Henrietta Settle; solo: "Calvary by Rodney," Mr. Tom Richardson and "God So Loved the World," by the choir.

STUDENTS HEAR EXPLANATION OF BANK WORK

ORANGE, March 22.—The fourth period economics class from Orange Union High school yesterday morning paid a visit to the First National bank where the functions of the bank were explained to them by Roy Edwards, cashier.

A complete tour of inspection of the building was made by the students, including the following of the check through the various departments. The issuing of monthly statements, clearing of checks, discounting, rediscouting, and other routine bank business were explained in detail by Edwards, who answered the many questions asked by the visitors.

Mason M. Fishback, economics teacher, accompanied the group.

Triple T. Club Is Entertained

LA HABRA, March 22.—Mrs. A. J. Wilson was hostess recently to the members of the Triple T. club, at her home on West Erma avenue. The Easter motif was carried out in the dessert luncheon appointments, and the afternoon was spent playing bridge.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Young Wilhoit, a guest of the club, who took first prize; Mrs. Edgar Leuham, second and Mrs. Bertha Hilbert, consolation. Others attending were Mrs. J. A. Chewning, also a guest of the club and members present, Mrs. C. L. Crumrine of San Fernando, Mrs. E. H. Little, Mrs. N. M. Launer, Mrs. H. H. Peabody, Mrs. W. J. Heiden, Mrs. William Gluth, Mrs. Rollo Walling, Mrs. R. F. Frantz, Mrs. E. A. Johnson, Mrs. Thomas Mahoney, Mrs. J. W. Smith and Mrs. Edgar Leuham.

Eighth Grade Students To Offer Play

CYPRESS, March 22.—"Pollyanna, the Glad Girl," will be presented by students of the eighth grade late next month. Harold Boos, school principal and teacher is directing the presentation.

A tentative cast includes Pollyanna Wither, Marjorie Outland; Polly Harrington, Louise Denny; Mrs. Carmody, Esther Boettcher; Mrs. Gregg, Jean McWilliams; Miss Carroll, Lillian Beazly; Little Jimmy Bean, J. Mitchell Tucker; Pudge, Dr. Chilton, Merle Taylor; Bleeker, Hedio Takeguma; John Pendleton, John Silvos, and Nancy Eunice Cochran.

Additions and a few changes of the cast are possible as the work progresses.

Junior Musicians To Be Presented

ANAHEIM, March 22.—Musicians of America will be presented in a Sunday concert at 2 p. m., April 4, at the K. P. hall under the auspices of the women's auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Mrs. Edna Wisser, president, has announced.

Members of the auxiliary have tickets for sale or they may be obtained at Wisser's Sporting Goods store. All proceeds will go towards local welfare work done by the orchestra are young people numbering more than 25. There are many stringed instruments of unusually fine quality, Mrs. Misser says, and a part of the program has been arranged particularly for this section of the orchestra.

Leon H. Stanislawski of Chicago is director of the orchestra.

SOCIAL MEET PLANNED BY NEW GROUP

ORANGE, March 22.—The first meeting of the Women's Fellowship, recently organized at the First Presbyterian church to consolidate women's groups in one unit, will be held March 25. Arrangements were made for the event at a board meeting last week with Mrs. E. H. Smith, presiding, Mrs. Eliza Flippin and committee will be in charge of program and refreshments.

A tentative budget was adopted after the treasurer's report had been heard. Present were, Mesdames Vern O. Estes, C. C. Hatch, H. F. Taylor, E. D. Westcott, W. H. Lowry, Edgar Chapman, Jane Welch, Lucien Flippin, Rose Carlson, M. L. Pearson, Charles Dever, R. B. McAulay, B. D. Stanley, E. H. Smith and the Misses Emma Williamson and Estelle Campbell.

TEA GIVEN IN HONOR OF MRS. HUFF

EL MODENA, March 22.—Mrs. D. Eymann Huff opened her Hewes Park home and extended a pleasant hospitality to about 50 guests Wednesday afternoon at a beautifully appointed shamrock tea. The tea was sponsored by the El Modena P.-T. A. St. Patrick's Day afforded the theme for a musical program and a similar motif was carried out in decorations and table appointments.

Mrs. Huff was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. Owen Smith, president of the P.-T. A. and Miss Emma Williamson. The tea table was centered with a large white pottery bowl filled with white iris and white stock, flanked with light green tapers. Mrs. Albert Klopstad and Mrs. Marion Flippin poured and a silver service was used in serving.

Mrs. Fay Irwin had charge of the program. Thomas Flippin sang "Irish Eyes A-Smiling," "A Little Bit of Heaven," and "Dear Little Girl." "When You're Away" and "Love Here's My Heart," were sung by Miss Frances Nuckolls, the first number as a piano solo and the latter as a vocal solo with Mrs. W. C. Armstrong playing the accompaniment. Miss Audrey Hancock sang, "Londonderry Air" and "Believe Me If All These Endearing Young Charms," and Donald Krueger sang, "Ave Maria," and "Bells of the Sea." Miss Hancock and Donald Krueger were accompanied by Miss Nuckolls. Mrs. Huff was assisted in her hostess duties by Mrs. Charles Kennedy, Mrs. Ted Stanley and Mrs. W. C. Kraft.

The first of two emergency airfields located in the middle of the Pacific ocean is nearly ready for use. The island is about 1650 miles south of Honolulu.

"SUFFER LITTLE CHILDREN"

America's heart is breaking over the New London disaster which in a moment snuffed out lives of more than 400 school children.

The national heart is breaking because there is no word of sympathy or hope that can ease the burden of grief from the shoulders of mothers and fathers whose children died in the tragic blast.

What can an individual, or a nation say to parents who have lost their children?

How can these parents' grief be assuaged?

Can we tell them that "they are happier now"?

No!

The children who died, for God knows what purpose, were standing on the threshold of life. They were smiling and unafraid. Then—suddenly—there was a blast and those lives, in which the hope of the nation were bound, were snuffed out.

They did not want to die—they had not lived that long! They were preparing themselves to live and, ironically, the building in which they were preparing themselves for life, was the tool used to snuff out their lives.

America can say no word that will express the national loss in the death of these children, nor can it relieve the heartbreak and despair of their parents. Words are poor things in a crisis such as this.

But America and the mothers and fathers of America can say to the parents of those children who were killed, "As mothers and fathers, we sympathize with you in your loss, knowing that a part of you, your hopes and aspirations and your ambitions were buried in the tangled steel and shattered bricks of the New London school."

If there is any comfort in it for those bereaved parents, let them remember "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believed in Him shall have life everlasting;" and the Master said:

"Suffer the little children to come unto Me, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

CALIFORNIA WILD FLOWERS

Certain sections of the eastern and middle-western states are noted for their spring wild flowers, but it is doubtful if any place in the nation can compare with Southern California at this time of the year.

Thousands of autoists journeyed to the desert yesterday to witness a sight that is entirely different from any place in the country. The desert flowers at the present time are at their best and the country through Beaumont and Banning to the land south of Palm Springs is a riot of color.

Soon the wild flowers will give way to cherry blossoms at Beaumont and Banning, and a trip to the Bakersfield country and Arvin is well worth the several hours' auto trip.

Auto clubs and chambers of commerce of the Southland are beginning to realize the advertising benefits of the wild flowers and where a few years ago a scattering few would visit the fields, today finds thousands upon thousands taking in the glories of that only nature can provide.

WHAT'S YOUR ANSWER?

On Tuesday night, the question as to whether or not one man producing wealth and keeping it in any way prevents another man, with like expenditure of human energy, from producing wealth, will be discussed at the Forum for Political and Economic Education.

This is a question on which there is a great deal of confusion, and the confusion has caused many laws to be passed in the last few decades. Unless there is a clear comprehension of this question, it is doubtful whether we can have a high standard of living.

Unless you know the right answer to this question, you cannot perform your duty as a citizen because the standard of living depends upon the intelligent understanding of the voters who establish our laws.

The affirmative of this question will be discussed by Lew Betts, who has probably read and thoroughly understands as many books on political economy as any man in Orange county.

The negative will be taken by Charles Ruby of the Junior College at Fullerton, California. Mr. Ruby directed the forum in Fullerton for eight years.

As stated before, these forums are not to win an argument or to show how smart any speaker is but the sole purpose is the same as that of scientists—to find the facts, to find the truth, as to what will be of benefit to society—what will make it possible for all workers to receive higher wages.

We know of no place where there is better opportunity for people to become enlightened on ethics and economical questions than by attending the Forum. It is for the benefit and intelligent enlightenment of the citizens of the community.

THE MOONEY CASE

We cannot help but believe that the state legislators have mighty little to do, when they devote a lot of their time to recommending pardons for Mooney. We doubt very much whether any legislators really know any more about whether Mooney should be pardoned than we do, but we do know that, unless we divide up responsibilities, unless we have the natural division of labor and permit people to concentrate on certain things and we, as individuals, concentrate on other things, we cannot accomplish very much.

We know that if we personally tried to produce everything we wanted and could not produce one thing and trade it for other things, we would go down to the lowest form of life and probably perish; that it is only by the natural division of labor that the country is able to support a large population and the more we naturally divide labor, the more efficient we become, and the higher the standard of living of all the people will be, because of the efficiency resulting from people attending to their own business and learning to do it rapidly and efficiently.

Probably the worst enemy in the country is the meddler who is always trying to attend to other people's business instead of his own.

The fact that the legislators are constantly attending to everyone else's business but their own, certainly is proof of the caliber of legislators we send to our law-making body.

STOPPING CONSUMPTION

Those people who are not willing to assume difficult tasks for themselves invariably contend that if there were a graduated tax on consumption, people would refrain from consuming and there would be no demand for goods—no demand for labor.

This contention is not based on sound logic, for the reason that every human being wants to consume and no one wants to produce unless production is coupled with the right to consume or direct who can consume.

There is no question as to there being any lack of desire to consume. The big problem is to get people to produce so they can consume. Any system that makes production difficult and retards the efficient from using their talents to the limit in production, greatly reduces production and consequently reduces the consumption, over a period of years, by the exact amount of the reduced production.

There is certainly no scarcity of wants but there is a scarcity of people who want to work.

NRA unconstitutional and I dare say that even high school students considered it illegal as an invasion of state rights.

Now as to the AAA, let it be remembered that during the debate on the bill in the senate numerous senators, both Democrats and Republicans, got up and announced "serious doubts" or gave flat opinions that the whole AAA or parts of it were unconstitutional. Among those expressing doubts were Senators George Tydings, Norris, Borah, Reed, Bratton, and others.

And yet in the face of all this the president whose record as a lawyer is no better than his record as a business man in which as an active officer and director he made 8 bankruptcies in 8 attempts has THE ASTONISHING TEMERITY TO CONDEMN THE COURT, and especially when he told the legislators to vote for bills "even if you have reasonable doubts as to its constitutionality." This is indeed a spectacle, for gods and men. It is egotism run amok. And these honorable judges who have by their age and lofty position achieved an attitude where selfish ambition no longer wars with the judgment are accused of a sort of less majesty, and unable by custom, to answer the attacks, are held up to the gibes of the shallow mob to make a Roman holiday.

Me and Sid Hunt was wawking along just wawking along, and Sid said, G, look at Lucky minding a baby.

Meening Leroy Shooster standing along of a baby carriage outside of a drugstore, me saying to him, Hi there, Lucky, is that a new relation of yours or just a friend?

Neither, I'm minding it for some lady, Leroy Shooster said. She said she would only be a minnit but it's a pritty long minnit according to this drugstore clock. She said she had to do a little shopping, Leroy said, and I said, Good nite, she's properly shopping in some other city by this time, didn't you ever hear of ladies asking people to mind their baby and then never coming back again?

Sure, Lucky, you're certainly a easy mark, Sid said, and Leroy said, Aw I don't believe it, what would any lady want to do that for?

Ladies do funnier things than that, I said, and now according to the law you'll have to adopt it till somebody claims it, and you'll have to push the carriage five times a day to give it exercise, and everything, Goodnite, it looks like a baby that somebody wouldn't come back for I said, and Sid said, Is it a boy or a girl?

The lady didn't tell me, Leroy said, and I said, Wichecker it is, it's cross-eyed.

Wich it was, and Leroy said, Well, well, fellows, I'll owe you each a cent if you stay here and help me take the responsibility.

Like fun, then we'd have to take terms pushing it, what's you think we are? me and Sid said.

With just then some lady came up in a hurry, saying to Leroy, I'm sorry I was longer than I expected, but here's 10 cents for your trouble.

And she pushed the baby away as if she was proud she owned it, me saying, Heck, if we'd took the responsibility you'd of had to give us each a third of that 10 cents according to law, and Sid saying, Gosh hang it, we mite of knew you'd be lucky.

Wich we mite of.

OUR CHILDREN

BY ANGELO PATRI

A CHILD'S VIEW OF THE WORLD.

O, dear! What has he pulled down now? Those poor fish. This is the second time in a week he has pulled them down and broken the bowl, and messed the whole place. Naughty! You're a bad boy. Go right over there and sit in the corner until I get time to talk to you. I don't want to see you, even, Poor fish. I'm going to give them away to some little boy who won't kill them."

"Can't you put them out of his reach, Jane? Seems to me if he knew he couldn't reach them—"

"Nothing so easy as that, mother. He can't reach them from the floor where he stands so he pulls the cloth and down they come. I have to keep something under the bowl. He's just determined to make mischief."

He does not know what mischief means. All he is doing is saying to all who will listen, "Lift me up a little higher please, or bring the world down here beside me so I can see it."

Grown people forget that a child's limit of vision is much lower than theirs. He is three feet high; his parents are more than five feet tall. He lives in a world that is away above his eye level and he wants to see all there is to see, up and beyond. He is not interested in pulling down lamps and vases and fish-bowls. He is interested in seeing them, that's all.

It is not possible to cut down the furniture in the house to meet the present height of the child. He will grow to it by and by. In the meantime he must learn how things look up your way. The best way out is to lift him to your height every day, take him around the house so that gradually he becomes acquainted with all there is above his level of vision. An excursion on father's shoulder helps tremendously.

Another good scheme—and one that all good nurseries ought to furnish—is a set of steps, broad, low, easy to mount. On these the little child steps to higher levels and gets a view of the adult world. He mounts to their heights and sees something of what they see. This is an instinctive desire, a very healthy one that teachers and parents need to recognize and value.

The spiritual world is above the level of vision of little children, and here, too, one lifts him shoulder high, takes him along to view the beauty of that world where there is no evil, no hurt, no sorrow. Here he learns to rest his troubled mind and heart, leaning on his father's shoulder, or against his mother's breast. Here he learns to leave the lower plane and rise to others beyond and above where he can find relief from the sharp corners and the uneven ground.

While you teach the child to look at earth on the level of your own eyes, teach him also to look toward serenity, beauty and peace far above all mortal vision. Lift him up.

Mr. Patri has prepared a leaflet entitled, "Convalescent Children," in which he tells parents how to help such children to entertain themselves without fatigue. Send for it, addressing your request to Mr. Angelo Patri, Child Psychology department of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped (3-cent) envelope. (Copyright, 1937, The Bell Synd., Inc.)

SHIFT

WASHINGTON, March 22.—You will soon find the new order edging around closer to A. F. of L. President Bill Green and keeping its distance from C. I. O. Chief Lewis. The reasons:

Mr. Lewis let that Detroit Chrysler situation get out of hand, or, at least, he permitted the powers-that-be here to understand he could not control when control seemed necessary to them.

At the same time, Mr. Green took his briefcase in hand and went before the senate judiciary committee to help President Roosevelt with his supreme court packing. Mr. Green's help was eagerly given and was needed.

New orderers never forget. They shift friendships as occasion demands. Just now, they are passing around word that their purposes can best be served by having two strong labor organizations in the national field. Furthermore, they do not want to bear too much of the responsibility for the widely spreading desire of workers to sit down everywhere and anywhere.
